Beautification Committee Has Landscape Study

A master landscaping plan for the entire Orinda Village was discussed recently by the Orinda Beautification Committee.

This plan would integrate the shopping centers and other buildings in the area.

Robert Babcock and William Penn Mott will study the situation to determine what can be done to make the area an attractive community coordinated with the Crossroads.

All merchants and property owners in the Village area will be invited to a meeting this spring or early next fall to discuss a preliminary plan.

MRS. BASIL Winslow reported to the committee that the litter can project is completed.

Anti-litter school posters which are in store windows will be picked-up by Mrs. Frederick Rust unless they are claimed this week by the children.

Tom Hayes told the committee that the Orinda Jaycees have established a fund for the beautification committee's work.

The Orinda Garden Club donated $65 worth of plants for Bryant Way and the library area.

According to Stan Allen, the Orinda Association's option on three acres adjoining community center land is about to expire.

Present at this third meeting of the year were: Tom Sibary, Robert Babcock, Tom Hayes, Neill Porter, Stan Allen and Mesdames Basil Winslow, Frederick Rush, Donald Pederson, A. P. Reck and Philip Champion.

AN EDITORIAL

Your Orinda Association will hold its annual membership meeting Monday.

We say "your" association, because that is exactly what it is. The Orinda Association is composed of representatives from each homeowner or improvement association in the community, and truly represents you.

IT IS OBVIOUS why you should support the association, both with your talents and with your money. Orinda has no central government, and important decisions affecting your home and your pocketbook are made in Martinez.

Your Orinda Association is an effective watchdog, seeing that Orinda remains the kind of community that attracted you to it in the first place.

IN ORDER to be an effective representative of the community, the association must have your active support.

Why not attend the meeting May 1 at Orinda School at 8 p.m. and meet your representatives in person? Once you have done this, you will join with hundreds of Orindans who have given the Orinda Association their active support in the past.

Hark! The Clock! Daylight Savings Is Here Again!

When you get up Sunday morning, it will be darker than usual.

At least, it should be! If it isn't, it means that you will be an hour late for church and that you forgot to set your clock to daylight savings time on Saturday.

Now, in case you've forgotten the procedure. You just set your clock AHEAD one hour Saturday night. If you want to be precise about it, you wait until 1 a.m. Saturday morning and then set your clock ahead to 2 a.m.

But if you don't want to stay up that late, just set it ahead when you go to sleep. But don't forget!

Math Contest Winners Told

David C. Wright, senior at Miramonte High School and son of Capt. and Mrs. Clarence C. Wright, 44 Valencia Road in Orinda, has won sixth place in the 1961 Annual Mathematics Contest, sponsored jointly by the Mathematical Association of America, and the Society of Actuaries. Wright was awarded a $25 Savings Bond.

Awarded honorable mention in the contest were: Miramonte junior Mike Eaton, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Eaton, 74 Hillcrest in Orinda, and senior Bill Corbett, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Corbett, 19 La Campana, Orinda.

Their scores of 56.5 and 55.25 respectively, were combined with Wright's 86.75 to give Miramonte a total score of 198.5, which earned the school sixth place in the contest area, encompassing northern California, Nevada and Hawaii.

These scores compare with an average school score of 87.0, and an average student score of 35.25.

Another Miramonte contest winner was Archie Meader, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Fries, 91 Acacia Drive, Orinda. He was awarded first place in the Central County Chemists' Essay Contest, which was a $50 Savings Bond. His entry will be placed in a larger contest.

New Tax Base Figures Given Property Owners

The county tax assessor has completed a review of property in Lafayette and Orinda. Notices were mailed this week to property owners advising them of their new assessed values.

The review of assessed values is part of a county-wide program begun in 1955 to appraise all property to see that each owner pays his proportion based on a uniform approach to all values.

Now almost three fourths complete, the review of values throughout the county is expected to be finished in approximately two more years.

LAFAYETTE and Orinda residents, some of whom are reportedly squirming in mental anguish over their new assessed valuations, may take some comfort from the fact their property was not among the first appraised.

Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, and points east have been paying taxes on the new assessed valuations for a year, and in some areas for several years.

Figures comparing the 1961-62 total assessed valuations of Lafayette and Orinda with those of this year are not available. The total figures for the new valuations of the two areas have to be run through the IBM and will not be available until July 1.

The assessor's office explained that increased assessed valuations in Orinda were caused by the increase in land values in many areas where the land had previously not been of much value and was consequently assessed at a low figure. The same is true of property in Lafayette.

COMPARISON of assessed values of homes would not give an accurate picture of the overall situation, according to the assessor's office, as each is appraised on its individual status.

For example property is appraised for one total assessed valuation figure, then broken down into two figures, one for land, one for the structure.

In one instance the assessed value of a house might be lower for 1961-2 due to its age and condition, whereas the assessed value of the land might be considerably increased, giving a valuation figure that would be much higher than previous years.

The county assessor works directly under the State Constitution and State law. The basis for establishing land values is determined by the state.

Yacht 'Sails' From Back Yard To Yacht Club

Hawaii called. And brothers Les and Don Harlander constructed a 39-foot craft in response.

The Harlander brothers built the craft in the backyard of Don, 13 Bel Air Drive, Orinda.

The yacht is named Ty-boon, which stands for "half tiger, half baboon," according to Don and Les.

The brothers plan to enter their boat with a crew of six in the bi-annual Honolulu race from Los Angeles July 4.

"Ty-boon" left the Orinda backyard recently via crane and trailer for the Richmond Yacht Club launching area.

Don Harlander is a mechanical engineer; Les Harlander is a naval architect.

They spent week-ends during the past 18 months building the yacht.

The Ty-boon is the first venture with a craft larger than their previous 22-foot sailboats.

Girl Scouts Will Strut their Stuff for Public Tomorrow

Troops of the Diablo Valley Area Council will participate in the annual Council wide displays and skill demonstrations Saturday.

Opening with a flag ceremony at 11 a.m., and continuing to 4 p.m., the public has the opportunity to visit exhibit booths where Girl Scouts varied interests and talents will be displayed; these include everything from homecrafts, hand arts, out of doors, sailing and study of the stars.

Continuous entertainment on stage of the multi-purpose room will include fashion shows and dances where the girls will have made their apparel, dances, songs and original skits.

CAMP EQUIPMENT will be displayed and parents will have the opportunity to consult with camp personnel regarding the best "gear" for Sierra Woodlands and Twin Canyon Day Camp.

Special greeters will welcome and register "girl scouts of yesterday" who are now career women and/or active in Community affairs. Highlighting the by-gone days, a film "Follow ME Girls" will be shown at various times throughout the day. This is a hilarious skit on the beginning of girl scouting with the uniforms and equipment of the era. A beautiful color film "Roundup in the Rockies" will be shown alternately. Senior Scouts will be hostesses.

"SENIOR HOUSE" is set aside for Mariners, Nurses Aides, etc.,

where seniors will demonstrate the five point program. Other seniors will operate the snack bar where sandwiches and soft drinks will be available at nominal prices.

Mrs. Jean Wiggins of Orinda, Chairman of Scouts in Action, said that girls are especially asking dad to escort them to the event, however, everyone in the family and friends of scouts will find something of interest. The public is invited and there is no admission charge.

CONSERVATION will be the theme of Troop 237, Walnut Creek, when they participate tomorrow in the "Girl Scouts in Action" production at Las Lomas High School. Prepared to go to work with weeder, shovel and rake are from-left LaDuska Monaco, Cathy Reeser and Valerie West.

COSTUMED young ladies of Girl Scout Troop 40 of Lafayette will perform a Peruvian Folk Dance as their part of tomorrow's production. Scouts who believe in putting the "action" into Girl Scouts in Action are from left Meris Emory, Thea Sonntag and Carol Somerton.

LEARNING a foreign language the modern way is fun for youngsters participating in the Orinda Union School District's foreign language program. With the help of tape recordings, tangible products of Spain, a large globe, the language becomes alive and stimulating. Los Ninos Estan Alli ... Learning Spanish In Class

By JEAN JERNIGAN

Deep brown eyes sparkling, black hair shining and enthusiasm bubbling forth in conversation, Senora Esther Johnson, district language teacher for Orinda schools, visited The Sun this week to tell the story of teaching a foreign language to grades four, five and six in Orinda schools.

Spanish has been taught at Orinda summer school for several years, and with success, but this school year is the first experience for teachers and pupils of teaching and learning a foreign language in regular class time.

The intelligent and enthusiastic response of the youngsters, the complete cooperation of teachers and parents, leave little doubt as to the success of the program.

DONDE ESTA LOS NINOS? Where are the children? The children are in class learning Spanish, and loving every minute. No vocabulary by rote for these youngsters. No poring over grammatical rules in endless texts. Orinda youngsters learn the modern way, which is also a fun and proven success way.

First the children learn by hearing, from their language teacher, from the tape recording, from the classroom teacher ... then they learn to speak ... and imitation for the young is very easy as more than one chagrined adult may recall!

After learning to listen, understand and speak, then comes language structure, but introduced in such a way it is still a happy, exciting experience.

WHAT YOUNG boy isn't interested in baseball, or little girl in jacks or clothes or dolls? Conversational Spanish becomes a thrill when a child can really SAY something almost immediately.

Relating conversation to youngsters' interests makes this possible in a language "frame". A "frame" is merely a standard set of words that anyone must use in asking if someone wants to play a game, designating the players, the spectators, names of positions ... it doesn't even need to be a game. "Where is the tennis racket ... or any other subject. The reply involves, "It is ...". Structure is learned in the frame, substitution of names or objects is a matter of one or two new words. The kids are talking and thrilled, before they realize what is happening.

REPETITION and drill is necessary, most teachers agree, but when the drill and repetition comes in the form of games, who cares? Surely not the youngsters who look forward to "bingo" or repeating their time tables in a different language.

"Bingo" in the classroom is actually identification of objects, fication by their Spanish name, and responses to successful command, drawn on a "bingo" card, identification of a card in Spanish.

There's nary a youngster over three not familiar with the story of "The Three Bears". When "Los Tres Osos" is presented via flannel board illustration and accompanying Spanish words, any fourth, fifth, or sixth grade child can follow with delight ... and learn.

Here's how the program works. Senora Johnson visits 35 classrooms each week. She introduces the lesson, leaves the tape recording and lesson plan for the classroom teacher to follow.

The tapes make it possible for the classroom teacher, who may or may not have heard previous language teaching experience, to teach correctly without mistakes in accent or grammar. In addition, teachers attend an in-service program once a week where they are taught how to teach the subject.

SENORA Johnson, a "regular" teacher before specializing in languages, brings much experience and training to her present position. Bi-lingual by birth, she also has studied extensively in her chosen field. She has taught on television and most recently earned a National Defense Education Act Scholarship through which she attended a foreign language institute at the University of Oregon.

In a foreign language in elementary schools progress report, Senora Johnson writes: "Our biggest goal, I feel, has been accomplished this year—this being that a child can be successful in learning another culture's language."

"Our goals must be realistic. If fluency, quality vs. quantity, is truly what we want our children to have, then we must direct all our efforts to that end. Once our goals and purposes are clearly established, progress and the fulfillment of our goals will be ours."

HOURS of pre-planning, hours of lesson and program establishment went into this first year's Spanish program. All indications at present foretell continued instruction at this grade level.

With eventual establishment at the upper grade level and with the probability that with articulation with the high school, elementary youngsters will be one jump ahead in languages when they graduate from eighth grade in Orinda.

Shell Awards Douglas Saxton Scholarship

Douglas R. Saxton, a senior at Miramonte High School, Orinda, today was awarded a four-year Shell Merit Scholarship.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Saxton, 4 Harold Drive, Moraga. He qualified for the scholarship as a top-scoring student in a series of tests administered by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation of Evanston, Illinois.

The scholarship is one of 25 offered annually by Shell Companies Foundation, Inc., to help stimulate the study of science and mathematics. They are offered to students planning careers as high school science or math teachers.

DOUGLAS was selected from among 10,000 semi-finalists in the NMSC exams. More than 550,000 students took preliminary screening tests beginning in March, 1960. Second tests were given semi-finalists last fall.

Douglas will major in mathematics or physical science at Wheaton College, near Chicago. He plans a career of teaching high school science.

He is president of his church youth group and has served as president of the Youth for Christ club in junior high school. Also a clarinet player, he has placed in honor bands with the California Band Directors' Association clinic and the Music Educators' National Conference.

THE amount of each Shell Scholarship is determined by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation according to the need of the student. The Shell Foundation provides 25 scholarships a year. Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

I Remember April ...

SIGN ON Imports by Haz'l last week: "Playing Hookey" ... but she was really having a Busman's Holiday for herself.

The blonde chignon shopkeeper left her store briefly to attend a LizArden fashion-luncheon at the Claremont Country Club w/Dorrie deMaeyer & Gladys Thompson.

The latter lady we saw later around town looking very chic in a French crinkle-crepe dress of her own design & doing. Tucked in at the decollete neckline, a garnet rose to match the velvet bag she carried & on her pretty head, an unusual chapeau fashioned of beige & white teardrop feathers.

THEN in Sprouse-Reitz we spotted Cis Larken looking very Very Suburbia in a cowl-necked suit of soft heather tweed ... & farther down the line at Lucky's, Mickey Miller saluting summer in a slim skirt of lavender cotton, a brilliant-striped sleeveless blouse ... & before we leave the Fashion World to Vogue, there was that beautiful bonnet of myriad hues of lavender posies atop the blonde noggin of Dorothy Morrissey.

SO MUCH for the well-dressed women of Suburbia!

OUR WHINES Have Tender Gripes: We wonder if they're isn't some solution to the rising High Cost of Summer League Baseball. What started out as simple fun for nothing or a dollar or two some five years ago has come to the point of $6 per playing boy.

If the boys sold four tickets to the baseball game held last wk. at Pine Grove (1 wk's notice they got) they could keep the $2 (for the four 50 cent tickets) thereby making the SL cost only $4. A simple case of coercion in some people's opinion, including mine.

WHAT'S MORE, veteran baseball families complain that they still have perfectly good used-one-season shirts & caps in the closet. Why can't the uniforms be turned back in for another team's use the next year? The fathers who give of their time to coach have to pay for their shirts & caps, too ... & at the end of season, their uniforms are still in good shape. This all comes under the Dept. of WasteMakers, not to mention the ridiculous expense if you have more than one boy interested!

AS ONE Del Rey put it: "I decided not to sign up. Why should I? I can play baseball for fun w/my own friends for NOTHING!" Any comments offstage?

PLAY THE ANNIVERSARY WALTZ for James & Elizabeth Burke of Camino Pablo who celebrated their Golden Wedding Annv. last wknd ... & waltz me around again, Willie, for Gladys & Paul Vashell who will hold an informal "Open House" on April 30 commemorating their long-lasting I Do's ...

Take a Sunday Drive

SUNDAY SPIN in Suburbia: The lavender spikes at the Lindsey Spights ... The floral extravaganza along Camino Sobrante where riots of rhododendrons & azaleas are having their own Spring Garden Show ... The pale pink dogwood at the Cliff Benjamins ... The banks studded w/yellow, white, bronze & lavender-blue iris at the Neville Daniels' & the roses tumbling & climbing over the fences along Moraga Highway. What fairer place than this when April Showers bring May flowers ...

GO FLY A KITE, said Scoutmaster Walt James & so they did, the cubs who had recently held a kite-making contest ... High on the windy hill, up, up, up Donald Drive, Tim James getting his HUGE box kite "Moon-ward" off the ground. Norman Kerth had the world by the tail w/his homemade Butterfly-airplane kite. Good old-fashioned fun this kite-making & the kids turned up w/outstanding designs—fish, butterflies, Chinese hats, rocket ships, etc.

POST-Election Sighs: Gretchen Howe (who'll join the incumbents Ruth Gilwee & Jay Ainsworth on the school board) lunching at the Country Club next day w/friends Margaret Anderson & Barbara Bedayne & sporting on her shoulder a mammoth orchid which her husband pinned on her the night before LATE when they got the election results & toasted w/champagne which optimistic husband just happened to have hidden away. Congratulations to Gretchen!

NATURE NOTE: You can help the Fish & Game Commission determine just how much poison spray affects the birds, pigeons, etc. if you will report any dead birds (minus other obvious injuries) to the F & G Comm. at Garfield 1-8800, Ext. 441 ... & Thank YOU, Barbara Bedayne, who is busy organizing some bird-watching parties these days.

THANK HEAVENS for Little Girls, like the little miss who might be named Mary-Something & joined the George Perlain family last Monday night ... not to mention The New TRACY, Born April 8, to the family of Jerry & Marge Trumbly of Daryl Drive.

Retired Chicago Herald-Tribune newsman Hay O'Flaherty & his wife, Syb, our library lady, are studying the Scandinavian "Skal." They leave shortly for a summer's stay in Oslo w/dgthr. & grandchildren.

DOROTHY & LANCE Barden will forsake their smart black Jaguar for a camel or what have you when they head for Pakistan in June on a business assignment.

WATCH OUT, Europe, here they come, the Joe Downses who jetted off on a tour of the Continent yesterday. With their pep, they'll probably see everything in a month that it takes anyone else SIX MOS. to see.

PICTURE OF THE WEEK: A tiny crew-cut laddie in cowboy boots mit holster clutching a big blue balloon & looking very brave while everyone else was looking for his Mama in the dime store. Oh, that's a lovable age—when they really MISS your presence!

MOTHER-DAUGHTER DUOS ... Libby Brock & her Betsy in summer shorts & summer white on their rounds at the grocery store ... & Cherry Partell & her mom Betty stopping for cool cones at the ice cream parlor of LOARD'S.

TWELVE-year old Jill Harrah, having been shorn of her pretty long locks at the beauty shop, heading for home w/her mother Dorothy ... & a bag-full of beautiful Alice In Wonderland hair, one wisp which she tied w/ribbon for her scrapbook. Such is the Fate of Fashion ...

JUDY POOLE, daughter of Billie Poole, is one of the four finalists for the Title of Crescent Girl of Lambda Chi Alpha at San Jose State where she is a freshman, majoring in marketing.

Special Meeting Called to Discuss Parking Problem

A special meeting to discuss parking problems in the crossroads area of Orinda has been scheduled for Wednesday at 7 p.m. at Mike Lynn's.

In a letter mailed to all property owners and tenants in the Orinda Crossroads area, Stan Allen, Orinda Chamber of Commerce, writes the following message:

"A PARKING problem which for some time has been serious now seems to be rapidly approaching the acute stage. The installation of signals at the off ramp from the freeway resulted in certain traffic changes that required the elimination of a considerable number of parking spaces.

"The present routing of the Greyhound buses through the heart of the business section seems to continue to aggravate the traffic problem, and the county has under consideration recommendations that would further reduce existing curb parking.

"If something isn't done to cope with this continued encroachment on our meager parking possibilities and to cope with other related problems, it would seem evident that businesses in this area are soon going to begin to suffer materially for the reason that their customers cannot park conveniently.

"The undersigned has acted as a self-appointed business citizen with a compunction to call attention to this serious problem. Discussions with the directors of the Chamber of Commerce and others has confirmed my opinion that the problems facing this business area could quite possibly be met in the most satisfactory manner by the formation of an association of the property owners and tenants of the area.

"It is further thought that this might most logically be accomplished through a meeting of the interested persons. Several of the major property owners and tenants have indicated a willingness to attend such a meeting.

"In order that we could have as good an attendance as possible, it seems to be necessary to schedule an evening meeting, and several have expressed interest in making dinner available. Our local restaurant, Mike Lynn's, has agreed to make a private room available for us on Wednesday."

Those planning to attend the meeting should make reservations through Stanley Allen, Sprouse-Reitz Co., Inc., 64 Moraga Highway. Dinner reservations, which include dinner and tip, are $3.50.

Those unable to attend the dinner meeting, may join the group at 8 p.m. Wives and/or husbands are invited.

The Sociables

By MARIE MONAHAN

IT LOOKED LIKE a Bit of the Bohemian Grove on Camino Don Miguel one recent summery Saturday when Perc Brown tossed an all-day get-together for a host of his good friends.

It was Strictly A Stag Affair with "relaxation" for the business man the keynote of the day ... Sumptuous viands catered by Trader Vic were served at a pre-noon Brunch, some guests arriving as early as 9:30 a.m.

Throughout the day, a royal repast was readily available (roast beef & ham was constantly replenished) & the highlight of the "round-the-clock-party" was the arrival of chartered buses in the early evening to take the men "out" to dinner.

DOMINOES in the shade of the oak-studded garden proved a popular pastime for many of the male guests. ... Here were the brothers Mulvaney, Fred & Bob ... Walter Boysen, who was giving his own dinner party that evening & had to miss the Special Event. (Activities for the day & evening were noted on the poolhouse scoreboard), Ritchie Smith, Fred Borden, Don Krotz, Dwight Chapman, Bill Fleager mixing good company & good conversation.

BARBERSHOP QUARTETS from Berkeley were kept busy filling requests for old favorites & enjoying this old-time touch was artist Lonie Bee, Dr. Carl Wellington Smith, industrialist Ed Heller, Dr. Stephen Jensen, to name a few more.

Attorney George Hauerken was among those enjoying a cool dip in the pool as was Mel Jacobus, Dr. John Gompertz, Bill Wentworth, Francis Cross, Cort Majors over from Piedmont & a score more of the host's friends who came from near & far.

At party's fini, the fellows all agreed that their host's party was "The Most" & that he did it up "Brown!"

ON THE DISTAFF SIDE, aficionados of the bridge game made a social & as well as monetary success out of Glorietta School's recent BRIDGE BONANZA ... One of the daytime sessions was held April 18 at the home of Mrs. Robert (Billie) Bowles where the wind, fog & cold put a damper on the plans for swimming but not on The Game or the luncheon & fashions by Ogden's ...

TABLED TOGETHER indoors at the Bowles' Orchard Rd. res were Marian Demming, Aileen Deahl, Rose Van Dyke & Glorietta School sec'y. Mrs. Johnson ... Diane Potter, Kitty Fisher joining the other half of their party ... Nancy Ault, Elcey Keresey (she's the Parents Club publicity Chrmn.) making it a foursome w/Marilyn Joy & Diane Foss ...

DAYTIME duties as Committee Chrmn. occupied Fern Halloran & Bev Paine while counting up her tickets sold was the job of June Miners. A delightful lunch under the culinary leadership of Lillian Rupenthal was served by Hilda Lorehson, Trudi Cook & Jean Allen to name a few who assisted.

MOTHER & DAUGHTER models doing their summer fashions modeling stint to the commentary of Gertrude Ogden were Tink Ammen, Al Sally Shannon, Gloria Lord ... Among the Young Set models were Betty Gyllenberg, Kathy Halloran & Ellen Deahl, the accent on casual clothes for country living w/the latest in swim styles offering particular appeal.

The Friday evening Bridge Bonanza session was held at the Oakwood Road home of the Phillip Bushes ... Here, for a handful of the Couples (no kicking under the table, dears!), were the Bob Hennings, Frank Thomases, Jocelyn Neufeldts, John Magas, Ralph Miners, etc.

ANNUAL SPRING LUNCHEON for Orinda Art Center members & guests will be Wednesday at Orinda Country Club ... Pre-lunch speaker will be Glen Wessels, professor of Art at UC. For reservations for lunch, call Helen Gibbs at CL 4-3542.

School Building Costs Is Symposium Topic

By CAROLE GOOD

"We feel we have a heavy obligation to you," said John Lyon Reid, an investment counselor from the California Institute of Architects.

Reid was a member of a panel of three who spoke at a symposium on school construction costs at Concord Inn, Concord, April 20. The symposium was sponsored by the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association and the Contra Costa County School Boards' Association. Dave Snyder, vice president of the County School Boards' Association, was moderator.

The panel consisted of Reid, Mark Falk from Falk and Booth Engineers, Roy Granville, superintendent of the Salinas City School District.

Subject of the symposium was school construction costs, i.e., whether re-using school building plans is economically sound, and the disadvantages and advantages if the plans were re-used.

Reid told the audience the cheapest way of building schools is not the best way, as it doesn't work out in the long run. In school construction the best return is wanted on the invested dollar.

"School construction must be considered as an educational investment over a long term." For example, Reid said that a seven-dollar per square foot and a 20-dollar per square foot building are two widely differing situations over the long haul. The latter, he indicated, was superior investing.

Speaking next, Roy Granville said "I'm not a crusader, I don't urge a school plan bank."

Granville is superintendent of the Salinas City School District. The area has a population of approximately 28,000, he said. As he described it, the area has a coastal, moderate climate, with no air conditioning necessary, although it is foggy "all the time."

"We faced an exploding school population," Granville said. "What we wanted first was adequate school housing, sacrificing aesthetics if necessary."

Granville told the gathering "School housing is the most acute problem in California, more than water."

"The problem is of much greater magnitude than most people realize," he said.

Salinas has developed a standard six-room unit which is self-contained, and easily adapted to existing units.

The unit consists of a wood frame, stucco exterior, aluminum sash, open corridors with overhanging roof, exposed beam ceilings acoustical tile, plaster and fir plywood interior, slab floor, radiant heating. Also, it includes sky domes for secondary light which reduces glare and lowers the amount of artificial illumination needed, vinyl asbestos floors, tar and gravel roof.

Such a building was constructed at the cost of $12.25 per square foot, according to Granville.

He gave an example of the speed which a building can be undertaken. March 6 the school board authorized a building project using former plans. This cost a four per cent architect's fee to re-use the plans.

The building contract was let April 16. Twelve classrooms were then constructed at the cost of $203,600 or $10.50 per square foot.

Granville approves re-using plans because: it saves time, the district can make minor plan changes without consulting the architect, etc., and the district is not committed to the plans.

The Salinas City School District is not on state aid. It is still on a bond fund, according to Granville.

He said that the six-room units can be constructed in addition to the existing plants. "Thus Salinas is convinced that the standard plan is good. We are pleased," he summed up.

Mark Falk then warned the audience that education should not be jeopardized to shave costs.

J. L. Reid remarked, "Stock plans are good if they are a good investment."

He mentioned that plans should be flexible. Such stable cost items as wood and steel should be used freely.

"A serious point," he said, "how can you measure savings unless there is a comparison?"

He answered his query by saying that plans are needed which are current with cost materials indices. Use building materials which are stable in cost, such as wood and steel.

According to Falk, all school plans now belong to the school district, not the architects. The original work fee is eight per cent. Plans which are re-used carry an architect's fee of four per cent plus cost of modifications.

Jack Buchter, local architect, asked Granville "What about using these plans with complex topography versus your district's flat lands?"

Granville responded, "The plans are applicable to a specific location."

A man from the audience asked if copies of the school plans were available for other districts' use.

Falk told him, "We'll run off all the copies you want."

Careers Beckoning

A crash program directed at teenagers and college students for possible lifetime work in mental health careers will be emphasized during Mental Health Week starting Sunday.

School psychologist Miss Mary McGrath of the Contra Costa Mental Health Association, a United Crusade Agency, is general chairman.

Miss McGrath announced that members of the women's clubs throughout Contra Costa will call on all schools, armed with counselor kits.

"THE MAJORITY of hospitalized mental patients are unable to receive the treatment needed because of personnel shortages."

"Our county clinics are compelled to turn away children and adults seeking treatment because of the manpower shortage and also prevents the opening of new clinics."

"And vital research is kept waiting because of the lack of staff," Miss McGrath said.

She continued, "Great strides have taken place in mental health with medical advances such as to enable the mentally ill to resume normal living. However, today's crisis in the mental health professions will become a disastrous crisis in the future."

THE HOSPITAL visitation program called "Operation Friendship" which, during the past two years, attracted record number of persons, will be continued.

Herrick Memorial Hospital Psychiatric Ward will hold open house on Sunday, 1:30 to 4 p.m.

Arrangements have been made for a chartered bus for Sunday, leaving Concord Greyhound Depot at 11:30 a.m.; Walnut Creek depot at 11:40 a.m.; Orinda at 11:50 a.m. and Richmond depot at 12:15 p.m.

They will arrive at Napa State Hospital about 1 p.m. with return time set at 4 p.m.

Cost of the round trip is $3.50 with each person to bring a box luncheon.

ALSO SCHEDULED for Mental Health Week will be a series of film showings to be announced shortly.

Active participants in various phases of the association's program are members of the California Junior Women's Clubs under the direction of District Mental Health chairman Mrs. Bernard M. Krieg of Pittsburg.

The members will distribute to school officials the Counselor Career Kits made available through Short-Doyle program.

Working with Mrs. Krieg will be Mrs. Albert Taylor of Walnut Creek Junior Women's Club for Walnut Creek and Orinda area; Mrs. John Saemann of Danville Junior Women's Club for San Ramon-Danville area; Mrs. Donald R. Schumacher of Concord Junior Women's Club for Concord and Clayton area; Mrs. Howard Healy of Pleasant Hill Junior Women's Club for Pleasant Hill.

MENTAL HEALTH can become a life-time career challenge for young people. The possibilities are viewed by Mrs. Albert Taylor, committee member, and Burk Faraola, Las Lomas High head counselor. —Sun photo by Bob Rush.

3 Schools, 2 Churches Burglarized During Week

Nine burglaries which included three schools and two churches kept Sheriff Deputies busy during the past seven day period.

The Tice Valley School in Walnut Creek, Orinda School, and Stanley School in Lafayette were broken into as well as St. Perpetua's Catholic Church in Lafayette and Christ the King Catholic Church in Pleasant Hill. Another burglary took place at Miramonte High School when a car was broken into.

Tice Valley was broken into for the second time in a week. A CRUDE attempt to break open an office safe failed for the second Sunday in a row. The persons took $1.30 from a coin box of a coke machine in the faculty room and 85 cents from an office desk.

A fenced warehouse yard at Orinda School was entered over the weekend and a canvas tarpaulin taken. Several boxes of bolts, screws and nuts was taken from a small building within the yard.

The persons climbed a fence to enter the yard then kicked in a door to enter the building.

Fred C. Davidson, a teacher at Stanley School, discovered the school had been entered when he came to do some work on Sunday.

The persons had tried to force the library door, but gave it up. They then did force open an office door, causing a great deal of damage to the door.

SCHOOL officials could not find anything missing. Father Quinn of St. Perpetua told deputies that two per boxes at the rear of the church had been pried open, and the money taken. He also reported a bottle of sacrament wine missing.

A latch had been pried off a rear door of the church to gain entrance. An inside door was also forced open.

Father Murphy of Christ the King Church reported the church had been broken into Sunday evening. John Lennon, a janitor, discovered that a door had been forced to enter the building.

THE PERSON had tried to pry open two coin boxes attached to candelabras in the church. Father Murphy told deputies that a similar attempt was made on April 15, but no signs of forced entry were found at that time.

A petition box was opened, but it did not contain money. The church office was also broken into, but nothing disturbed.

William Brailsford of 3787 Sundale, Lafayette, told deputies that someone had pried open his car trunk while he was attending class at Miramonte High School last Friday.

He said his spare tire and wheel was taken along with a tool chest containing more than $50 of equipment.

Theodore S. Neil of Hunsacker Canyon Road, Moraga, had his television set taken from his front living room while he was away Monday. He told deputies that someone had pried a padlock off his front door.

A HOUSE open for the inspection of prospective buyers was stripped of its wash basins Sunday.

Contractor Mario J. Valente of 4029 Valente Drive, Lafayette told deputies that the basins were taken between 5:15 and 6:15 p.m.

Bill Downey, a realtor for Mason and McDuffee was attempting to sell the house Sunday. The sinks were in the two bathrooms at 5:15 but were noticed missing by a person inspecting the house at 6:15.

One sink was taken from the utility bathroom and another from the master bathroom. The house is located at 4024 Mario Way in Lafayette.

JOHN KEY of 1158 Saranap Avenue, Walnut Creek, saw someone tampering with the coin box in a phone booth at 43 Orinda

Still undecided? Think maybe you might, but it's probably too late?

Well, it isn't, if you hurry! You can still join the happy local people who are going on the Sun Suburbia Tour which leaves foggy San Francisco for Sunny Hawaii May 10.

The tour, as you probably already know, will last for 17 days and will include just about everything your heart could desire. Passage on the standard tour will be by Matson luxury liners the Lurline and Matsonia, and you will stay in the beautiful Hawaiian Village while you are in the islands. The only thing not covered in the bargain price of the tour is the cost of your meals while you are in the islands.

HOW MUCH? Just $598.50 for the package, including your choice of a catamaran tour of Pearl Harbor or a tour around the island of Oahu.

However, if you would like less luxurious accommodations the tour can be had for as little as $433.50... a real bargain.

The timing can be pretty much as you wish it, too. You can stay longer if you like, arrange for extra tours to the other islands, even fly back if you wish.

All these arrangements can be made to suit the needs of you or your family.

HOW CAN IT be arranged? Just call your local travel agent or Mrs. Eleanor Silverman, who will be The Sun's representative on the trip. She can be reached at AT 4-4444 or AT 3-3030.

But time is rapidly growing shorter, and this is the chance of a lifetime.

Local Woman Crusading Against 'Inhumane' Laws

MANY legislative proposals which she believes are inhumane to animals are getting the full attention of Gladys Sargent, president of Pets and Pals, a non-profit "home" for animals located at 3338 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

Mrs. Sargent told The Sun that she has made many trips to Sacramento during recent weeks, seeking support and speaking against such bills as the one which says, "Frogs may be taken by slingshot."

However, her interests vary from a suggested "Humane Slaughter Act" for the disposition of livestock in California to the special bow and arrow hunt proposed for deer.

MRS. SARGENT'S efforts have attracted the interest of many organizations sympathetic to animals in the state.

Recently, she was appointed a state humane officer by an Oakland judge. The office carries the powers of arrest for violations of humane laws.

A Contra Costa deputy sheriff for several years, she has also been elected president of Pet Welfare, Inc., of Oakland, and is also area chairman of National Dog Week, September 24 to 30.

"I am not against shooting and killing as such, but only against the suffering," she told The Sun.

MRS. SARGENT'S strong beliefs have taken her into contact with numerous state senators and assemblymen.

This includes Assemblyman Jerome Waldie, whose name is on Senate Bill 2301 for slingshotting frogs, which was originally proposed by Robert Moore, an Oakland resident and Lafayette businessman.

Moore has said that the sport involves no pain for the frogs, since they are immediately paralyzed by the impact of the slingshot, no matter where they are struck.

Mrs. Sargent said she considers her efforts successful in some areas and unsuccessful elsewhere. The bow and arrow special hunt was not killed in committee, she said.

She is also interested in Senate Bill 353 which she says would open parks and beaches to hunting. Senate Bill 560 which allows a hunter who has accidentally killed another person while hunting to obtain another license.

ALSO SENATE Bill 645 which would allow men over 70 per cent disabled to receive free hunting licenses. Her feeling is that the disabled person cannot follow the prey and put it out of its misery.

There are other bills, like the one which was killed which would have stopped sale of all colored chicks. But there is another one which would stop sale of very young baby chicks to persons not able to care for them.

Protection of yellow billed magpies and black billed magpies have taken up much of her time.

And there are many others.

Moraga Valley Terrace Club Announces Plans

Development of the Moraga Valley Terrace Club on 24 acres of the Moraga Ranch in the heart of the Moraga Valley is soon to become a reality according to Robert M. Cummins, president and general manager, who resides at 108 Fiesta Circle, Orinda, California.

Designed to provide a private, family social and recreational club with the most modern services and facilities available, this California corporation was formed on December 31, 1960.

THE CLUB will be operated in accordance with the normally accepted standards and procedures at 1199 Moraga Road, Moraga, governing the operation of similar facilities.

Organized recreation supervised and conducted for youngsters and adults by trained personnel will be a feature in the athletic program, with competent, professional instruction available in swimming and tennis. Summer day camp activities will be provided for boys from 8 through 15 years of age.

THE MODERN club house will include a restaurant and club lounge, a terrace ballroom, private banquet rooms, locker rooms, club and game rooms for both adults and teen-agers and a professionally equipped children's nursery and play yard.

According to Cummins, the club will offer facilities for social events, business meetings, or other group activities. Catering services or buffet luncheons will be available around the pools, on the terraces overlooking the Moraga Ranch, or in the private banquet rooms; while western fire-side barbecues, served ranch style, will be available in the picnic and barbecue areas.

This private club has been engineered and designed with special emphasis on family participation in social and recreational activities.

Myde W. Frates, vice president and assistant manager, has been associated with Cummins in the planning and development of this project for the past year and a half.

Cowell and Dennis of Pleasant Hill are the building architects. Construction costs for the facilities planned are estimated at $450,000. A 25 year ground lease agreement has been executed with Utah Construction and Mining Company, owners of the Moraga Ranch, with options to purchase the 24 acre site at any time during the term of the lease.

Camino Pablo School Work Progresses Well

By YVONNE MAUZY
DR 6-4083

I imagine all of you know your school board members by now. They are Don Falconer, Rex Collins Jr. and Al Haskell (4 year terms), Dr. Morgenstern and Bob Amber (2 year terms).

Another boy is born. The Vince Young's are the proud parents of a son, Scott Vincent, born April 19 at the Kaiser Hospital in Walnut Creek. He weighed in at 7 lbs. 12 1/2 oz.

The Camino Pablo School is 55 per cent complete and the contractor is working fairly close to the schedule. The furniture has all been purchased and is ready for delivery on July 1.

SCHOOL enrollment is at 406, the fall prediction is 499. As of the last house count we could build three more classrooms. If the prediction for September is correct we will qualify for four classrooms by that time. Some of you have been asking how the school split came out. K through fourth grades will be held at the Rheem School. Fifth through eighth grades at the Camino Pablo School.

New residents be sure to register your kindergartners at the Rheem School during the month of May from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 to 4 p.m. Please do not come during lunch hour.

Have you noticed the Orchard Dell Community Pool is in the process of being excavated? In fact, you can go swimming right now if you don't mind the muddy water for it is partly filled from the rains.

THE PARENTS Club will hold playday at the Rheem Estate June 6 from 11 to 4 p.m. Luncheon will include fried chicken, salad, potato chips, dessert pastry and coffee. There will be prizes, fashion show, swimming, bridge and entertainment. Bring your own bridge table and cards.

A nursery will be available at the old school so all mothers can attend. Some and spend the day in your play clothes or swim suit and be free of care. Tickets will be on sale May 1 for a donation of $2 for the day. Call Madge Caldwell for reservations.

The Girl Scouts of Troop 23 have planted the square in front of the Rheem School with their colors of green and gold. King donated the plants and helped with the planning of the square. The Scout fathers rototilled and the girls did the plantings. You did a beautiful job, girls.

The girls will be spending their overnight at Twin Canyon May 12-13 with other sixth grade Girl Scouts of the area.

They had their backyard campout at Ruth Salets, to prepare them for the overnight. The girls had a scavenger hunt and refreshments. They cooked their own breakfast of bacon, pancakes and juice in the out of doors the next morning.

I RAN INTO Nancy Garverick at the store the other day. She said they were moving to Davis soon. We will be sorry to lose them.

The Gourmet Club met last week at Betty and Don Campbells in Lafayette. The dinner consisted of six hors d'oeuvres, soup, Caesar salad, cornish hens stuffed with wild rice, mushrooms and almonds, french bread, a dessert of peaches in sherry cream and coffee. The group then danced until the wee hours of the morning.

Welcome to our new neighbors, Jack and Lois Woodmansen of Larch Avenue and their family of two children, Jackie and Randy, and a chipmunk, a cat and kittens, a pigeon and two dogs. Quite an addition to our neighborhood. Welcome also to retired Colonel (Mickey and Ruth) Currin and their daughters, Cathy and Barbara. Barbara is in nurses training at Providence. I understand the colonel is taking a business administration course at St. Mary's.

The Brownies of Troop 34 led by Marie Wright and Ruby Pagliaro called off their trip to Buckeye Ranch last Saturday because of the rain. The troop will set another date and hope for fair weather so they can take their long hoped for horse back rides.

Citizens Group Seeks Restrictions On Private Club Development

The request of the Moraga Valley Terrace Club for a land use permit to establish a family recreational club in Moraga was denied Tuesday by the Contra Costa County Board of Adjustment.

Further study of the situation will take place today when representatives of the Moraga Valley Community Club meet with the county planning commission and a representative of the district attorney's office.

Earlier in the week a letter protesting the issuance of a land use permit was sent to the Board of Adjustment by the civic affairs committee of the Community Club. The community club does not object to the Moraga Valley Terrace Club as such, but believes some restrictions should be made before a permit is granted.

The following is the content of the letter sent to the Board of Adjustment by the civic affairs committee:

"In accordance with your request, we are submitting our views on the above proposal.

"Preliminarily, we point out that the club is a corporation organized for profit under the laws of the State of California. This was not made clear in Mr. Cummins' initial presentation. The promoters will own all of the voting shares and control the operation of the club.

"MEMBERSHIP shares will be non-voting. According to the club's letter to the board dated April 18, 1961, it is contemplated that the facilities of the club will be used on a reservation basis for church and school functions, civic affairs, business luncheons, receptions, group picnics, etc."

"As you know, the plot plan submitted to you includes a very large bar, a ballroom, and an open air dance pavilion. It seems highly doubtful to us that this is a permissible use under the R-15 zone which permits social and recreational clubs which are not organized for monetary profit."

"We have tried to cooperate with Robert M. Cummins, the promoter of the club. Despite several requests, he has never seen fit to show us the by-laws, leasing papers and proposed permit by the corporation commissioner. It is difficult to evaluate the application under these circumstances.

"Cummins did make available the articles of incorporation. These are in very general terms and use standard form language which is commonly used in articles of corporations organized on a profit making basis.

"Under the circumstances we feel that the granting of a permit at this time is premature. Certainly we are not in a position to evaluate the application.

"At your request, we have endeavored to prepare some conditions to be attached to the permit if granted. We asked Cummins to work with us in developing a draft of appropriate conditions. He agreed to meet with us, then almost at the time set for the meeting he phoned and declined to appear.

"IN THE EVENT the permit is granted, it should be restricted with carefully worked out conditions. As you know, it is proposed to locate the club in a low density residential area. Directly across the street there will be fine homes.

"We have prepared a draft of some conditions which are appended to this letter. We feel that if the permit is to be granted the conditions should be worked out by the planning staff which has experience in this area which we lack.

"For example, the limits of the hours of operation should be stated. We understand that this is the practice in at least one neighboring county.

"We realize that you have given considerable time to this application, but feel that the matter is important enough to justify further consideration. We appreciate your patience and understanding of our position as demonstrated by your questions at the last hearing.

"Copies of this letter are being forwarded to Mr. Cummins, Mr. Clausen of the District Attorney's office, the Corporation Commissioner."

Attached to the letter sent to the board of adjustment were the suggested conditions to be imposed if the permit is granted. Terms and Extensions: The permit will be for five years. It may be extended for additional five-year terms upon application, and upon a showing of satisfactory compliance with all conditions.

CONDITIONS. The permit is issued upon the following conditions: Operations will be conducted strictly in a manner compatible with the club's location in a residential zone.

The club will be conducted predominantly as a family recreational facility for the use of its members.

No construction or landscaping will be undertaken until all plans, including landscaping plans, are submitted to and approved by the Board of Adjustment. Such approval will be based upon compatibility with the residential zone, including appearance, lights, signs, landscaping, parking, building and noise levels.

FACILITIES will be completed within two years substantially in accordance with the plans as submitted to and approved by the Board of Adjustment.

Membership will be limited to 1000 families.

Moraga Lions Call All to Breakfast

President Dick Erving of the Moraga Lions Club announced a Lions Club sponsored pancake breakfast to be served in the Rheem Shopping Center of Moraga from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. May 7.

The local Easter egg hunt sponsored jointly by the Moraga Mother's Club and the Moraga Lions attracted several hundred children and their parents.

It is anticipated that the "All you can eat for 50 cents" motif of the Sunday breakfast will double the attendance enjoyed by the recent holiday event.

Pancakes, sausages, coffee, milk and juice will be served. Butter, syrup, sugar, cream and the necessary serving items, together with the main entrees, have been donated by the local merchants to assist in this worthwhile fund raising effort.

Assisting President Erving are co-chairman John DeGuardia, Bert Bennett, Bob McGuire and Hank Martin. Cooks Art Fleuti of the Moraga Barn, Frank Gimbel of Gimbo's Bar and Restaurant and Jim Barcelon of Barcelon Realty have promised fast, courteous service.

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read (p. 315): "The likeness of God we lose sight of through sin, which beclouds the spiritual sense of truth; and we realize this likeness only when we subdue sin and prove man's heritage, the liberty of the sons of God."

Del Rey: New Flag

The Parents Club purchased a new 50-star American flag with pole, base and carrying belt included in the accessories. Mrs. Joseph Longacre, Parents Club president, made the presentation at the school assembly on Friday. Judy Baker from Mr. Robertson's fifth grade class read her poem, "Our Flag," which she had written to honor the flag.

Mr. Robertson's fifth grade class held an open house for parents on Tuesday evening. The parents were greeted by Ann Massie. Judy Baker read a poem of welcome which she had composed for the occasion. Mike Caudle talked briefly about the class work in social studies.

Carrie Jones explained our number system. Gary Walker, Kristin Olson and Terry Macdonald demonstrated the processes of multiplication and division.

KATHY SULLIVAN, Mary Schmidt, Toney Pale, Karin Huston, Mary Kate Ivanetich and Susan Hackett showed the various steps involved in adding and subtracting unlike fractions.

Monica Atkinson, Judy Baker, Bruce Launig and John Maier followed with examples dealing with the reducing of fractions and the handling of improper fractions.

Paul McKinnon, Tina Stanley and Jody Valencia illustrated the work of the class in making and solving equations. Supplemental work in individualized reading was investigated briefly with John Kilkhorst covering Power builders, Mark Ammen telling about Rate builders and Gary Walker discussing Listening Skill builders. The turnout of parents taxed the classroom's seating capacity.

Library Assistants Meet

Library Assistants from Pine Grove and Inland Valley and representatives from Orinda, Sleepy Hollow, Del Rey and Glorietta Schools recently attended the annual SLANC meeting at the University of California.

After listening to a discussion on libraries, election of officers and hearing a talk by a foreign exchange student, the library assistants toured the campus.

"VIKINGS RAH!"—goes the cheer of the new I. V. Intermediate School. Being a brand new school, there have been many problems to face. We had to decide such things as a school name, colors, team name, a constitution and uncompleted classrooms.

Our student council tackled the first four problems while the contractor worked out the last. We are happy to report that the building is completed, as are the plans for landscaping. Ours is fast becoming a beautiful school.

CAMPAIGN WEEK, in the middle of October, was a busy one. Candidates were vying for the best slogans and there were enough stickers to wallpaper the Taj Mahal. That wonderful week finally ended and, with final speeches, it was all over but the elections.

In the finals we elected Gary Baker president, Woody Osmunsen vice president, Judy Lissner secretary and Leslie Johnson treasurer. These officers act as head of the student council until next fall and another promise-filled week.

The student council works with Mr. Gaskell, our principal, and Mrs. Grimes and Mr. Tripp, the student advisors. During their first meetings, the class representatives suggested some team names and school colors. We had an election and chose to be known as the Vikings, with red and white as our colors.

At present, our student council is constructing the Viking Code, which is a guide for student conduct at I.V. The students at I.V. are anxious to build a good reputation, so we established a judicial court to insure student cooperation with the Viking Code.

THE JUDICIAL court consists of one representative from each room. After a summons is given the student appears in the courtroom to discuss the problem.

Our football and basketball teams have played well, considering that some of the teams we played were not entirely seventh grade. In baseball our "A" string is a razzle-dazzle team with chances for the top. They play almost errorless ball, as their record shows.

The cheer leaders seem to be at every game, whether it is A, B, C or D. They have some new original yells and, while the spectators for games on the road may be few, we usually outyell the home team anyway.

Most school clubs started about January and they are already making student life active. Besides setting chairs for the panel discussions and the like, the Viking Varsity plans fun things for their members, too.

Some coming events are a picnic and swim outing. Other clubs for students with different interests are: Literature (Mrs. Grimes), debating (Mr. Titus), crafts (Mr. Van Cise), chess and bridge (Mr. Keller), G.A.A. (Miss Gee) and science (Mr. Tripp).

OUR ORCHESTRA, directed by Mr. Pendleton, is planning to get up a pep band to play popular songs, old-time favorites and Dixieland jazz.

The first social activity held in our auditorium was a Valentine dance. The theme was "Red Heart Rock." The Pine Grove Intermediate School seventh grade was our guest. We students actually feel that we put on the whole dance, not to say that the teachers didn't help.

It would have been next to impossible without them. We are happy to say that Gary Baker and Woody Osmunsen did a wonderful job MC'ing. We have held several exchange dances with the Pine Grove School and have found many friends among our rivals.

Many people feel that attending a new school would not be much fun. There would be no traditions to carry on and so forth. We have found it is fun to make the traditions, within reason. For instance, how many established schools could change or choose their colors or team name? Anyone who has the opportunity to be a member of the first class in a new school should welcome it.

Everything that happens, campaigns, elections, dances, clubs and traditions, seem so much more important because you take part in the planning. We've found it is much easier to make the traditions than to break them. Student reporter, Carol Patterson.

Parsons Reports To Board on New Foothill Schedule

Superintendent Neil Parsons of the Acalanes Union High School District reported to the district board of trustees on the Foothill Athletic League schedules this week.

The Board of Governors of the Foothill League approved the complete league schedule for 1961-62 at its meeting last week.

Four schools that compete in the Foothill League are members of the Acalanes School District.

PARSONS told the Sun two weeks ago that his office would look into the schedule situation in the Foothill League because a question had arisen in the district concerning some rulings by the league governors.

The governors had cut out all freshman sports except football at a meeting in February. Many varsity teams had games cut off their 1961-62 schedules and several junior varsity sports were curtailed.

At their following meeting, the governors reinstated freshman basketball and increased the number of games allowed the junior varsity baseball team.

Following these rulings the Sun wrote an open letter to Parsons asking that he look into the athletic situation in the Foothill League.

Parsons told the Sun this week that he was not attempting to evaluate the Foothill Athletic schedules. He said he was merely attempting to gain an understanding of the schedules and policy of the governors.

IN HIS report to the Acalanes board of trustees on the information he had gathered, Parsons compared the number of athletic contests scheduled for this year and next year.

His report showed that 190 games per school were held this current year, with approximately 180 being scheduled for next year.

"This is a new league," Parsons said, "and officials of the league have been studying the schedules in an effort to bring them into better balance among the various sports and schools."

Consideration has been given to the number of tournaments that will be held, and each school has been given considerable freedom to schedule contests outside the regular school week.

The present schedule calls for an average of one game for each day that school is in session. Naturally at certain times of the year, and some days of the week, three and four contests may be going on at the same time at one school.

In a phone conversation this week, Parsons was asked about the Foothill League policy that does not allow members of the press and the general public to attend the monthly meetings of the governors.

PARSONS said he was not in a position to comment on such a ruling. He said it was up to the league to make its own rules.

Sirens Will Wail Today

Sirens will wail at noon today, adding realism to the Contra Costa County Disaster Office participation in a nation-wide civil defense training exercise.

The exercise is in two phases—the increased readiness build-up phase, last Wednesday and yesterday, and the attack and survival phase, today and tomorrow.

Participation will run from 1 p.m. to 11 p.m. today and 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. tomorrow, according to Will Perry Jr., county civil defense director.

NINETEEN services of the county disaster organization will report to the operations center. Simulated targets will be selected at the national level and will not be known in advance to state and local jurisdictions. "Messages in pre-positioned sealed envelopes will be relayed at specified times over civil defense communications systems in what is expected to be the most comprehensive civil defense exercise ever attempted in this country, state, county and cities," said Perry.

"Contra Costa County residents may participate in two events—a county-wide siren test at 12 noon today and a nation-wide 'Conelrad' test from 1 to 1:30 this afternoon."

ALL SIRENS in the attack warning system of the county and cities will sound the "take cover" signal (sometimes called the red alert), a three-minute undulating, wailing, warbling, up-and-down tone.

This signal means that enemy planes have been sighted and an attack is imminent. Everyone should take cover in the best shelter available.

There are 32 sirens in the County Attack Warning System, plus the sirens within the cities. Twenty-five sirens have been purchased by the county CD under the Federal Contributions Program with county funds matched by federal funds. They have been installed in the unincorporated portion of the evacuation area of the county. Linked last Friday morning, the County Disaster Council met in the Hall of Records.

The council is made up of the chairman of the Board of Supervisors, Joe Silva, Perry and the service chiefs.

They are as follows: Communications, George K. Burton; emergency welfare, William G. Golden; engineering and rescue, Victor Sauer; fire, Clarence Viera (Marine fire department chief); law enforcement, Walter F. Young; medical and health, Dr. H. L. Blum; radiological defense, Barbara J. Burton.

Public information, Eleanor R. Daly; traffic control, Capt. E. M. Felich, California Highway Patrol; food supply, Art. Seeley, county agricultural commissioner; emergency manpower, F. E. Emery; supply, Howard McNamer, Walter Seyden, assistant chief; operational information, Joe S. Connery.

Transportation, Rusk Rigor; citizen survival, R. E. Nelson; operational facilities, E. A. Lawrence; chaplain service, Rev. Roland E. Smith, pastor of Pleasant Hill Community Baptist Church; utilities, John J. Anderson, PG&E, Concord; industry facilities, Frank H. Colburn, Shell Chemical, Martinez; assistant chief, Art Storm, Tidewater Oil Company.

Survival for 100,000 Residents

Abandoned mine shafts in the Mt. Diablo, Somersville, Nortonville and Stuartsville areas could be rehabilitated as sanctuaries in the event of atomic attack—except for the fact that there is no money allotted for the work.

County Civil Defense Director Will H. Perry, Jr., said recently in a letter that his staff undertook a preliminary study of the abandoned mines currently offer excellent protection against radioactive fallout.

"WE FEEL that for a very modest expenditure these mines could be rehabilitated and stocked with food and water sufficient to allow in excess of one hundred thousand people to survive."

He added, "Further studies of in this county nor nation-wide, have realistically faced the dangers and have taken it upon themselves to do something about it."

Perry said that the county's civil defense program now costs the public 25 cents per capita.

He said that a single expenditure of $25 per capita would provide a shelter program for the county.

He said, "To me, $25 is a very slight sum when compared to the intangible value of a human life."

"THIS $25 by the way would be a one-time expenditure and then we would return to the 25-cent base."

Perry's letter was written in reply to a letter written by Mrs. Erika Polson of 104 Jackson Way, Alamo, to County Supervisor McNielsen, earlier this year.

Mrs. Polson recalled that relatives of hers in Saarbrücken, Germany, during World War II, were saved by a civil defense shelter located six blocks from their house.

She suggested that a large bomb shelter might be constructed in Mt. Diablo, accommodating 50,000 or more people.

SHE SAID, "... My husband and I and family, can, we hope, get out to Lake Tahoe to a three-bedroom house we have there and last summer we fully insulated it. We have begun a program to winterize all the rooms in case we need to live there. "However, there are thousands of people here in Walnut Creek, Concord, Pleasant Hill and surrounding areas not so fortunate."

A $31½ Million Saving for Taxpayers Sounds Fine!

Half a million dollars a year ain't hay, as the saying goes.

But that is what County Administrator J. P. McBrien estimates the county will be saving by 1980 with the establishment of a single municipal court in the county.

In an excellent report presented last week to the Board of Supervisors, McBrien estimated the savings of this procedure at $160,000 the first year, eventually stepping up to $500,000 per year by 1980.

A little simple figuring indicates that this is a whale of a lot of money that could be saved. And you know who benefits from the saving . . . the taxpayer.

McBrien HAS urged that a single municipal court including a branch department with two judges in the central county area and a county-wide justice court, eliminating all other justice courts, be established.

These recommendations are even more sweeping than those of State Supreme Court Justice Phil Gibson who called for limited consolidation last year.

We are heartily in favor of this proposal. It comes as a result of a request for the study made by the board of supervisors. The board is to be commended for asking the study in the first place, and McBrien is to be commended for his prompt, efficient action.

FROM THE FACTS available to us, this proposal certainly looks logical. There are probably some arguments against it, and the board of supervisors is going to have a tough time if they decide to implement the plan.

Certainly the judges of the existing courts are not going to like the idea, and you will probably hear complaints from people in individual areas who want their own court to remain at home.

There will be pressure put on the board, the kind of pressure that is not easy to resist, and it will take real courage on the board's part to see that this plan becomes a reality.

BUT IT OBVIOUSLY can be done, and it obviously should be done. The savings will amount to considerably more than $31½ million in the next 20 years, and that represents plenty of dollars on our tax bills.

This is the kind of thing that we have needed in this county for many, many years. A streamlining of our official processes. It is the only way we are going to be able to keep our constantly rising tax rate within sight.

The proposal, as outlined by McBrien, would put our municipal court system on an operating basis similar to that of the superior courts, where there are several judges operating within one court system. This is also the way the federal courts operate.

Obviously something along these lines should have been done long ago, but that is water under the bridge.

The important fact is that it can be done now.

And it will be up to the board of supervisors to see that it is done.

A Lesson Well Learned . . .

SUMMER IS COMING, and with it, bike riding days are here. Youngsters should be taught to realize that they are responsible for operation of their bikes, and should learn all the rules that go along with the responsibility. This young chap, who is giving the proper hand signal, is on the right track.

We Like It Here . . .

Next Week We've Got To Get Organized, Baby . . .

AROUND the homefront, here, we are mighty disorganized.

"We've been thinking of calling in an efficiency expert to uncover the reasons.

An efficiency expert is something I know little about. In fact, I do not have the personal acquaintance of any such species.

IT IS A good thing.

It would be a disastrous friendship. One of those Hello, Goodbye (you're not my Cup of Tea) kind of things. The efficiency expert would make short shrift of me!

I am probably the most disorganized person in the whole world.

That is because everybody is trying to organize me & it just can't be done.

AN EFFICIENCY EXPERT couldn't STAND the way I do things.

Like bouncing the baby with one arm . . . & planting petunias with the other.

I wonder what efficiency experts recommend when there's a new baby in the house. You see, it is not US, or ME that is running the house these days.

IT IS the BABY that is running the whole shooting match! Like they say in the supermarkets, we are "Under New Management."

The baby wouldn't understand a thing the efficiency expert suggested.

In fact, the baby doesn't even understand Dr. Spock.

I don't think Dr. Spock understands the baby, either.

WHEN SHE wants something, she WANTS it. Not at 2:05 precisely or when the living room is tidied up—she wants it right NOW!

IT DOESN'T do any good to refer to Spock, Chapter 11, "Babies sleep most of the time between feedings," etc. . . .

WHO gets that kind of baby? None of our friends DO & we don't either!

I guess that's one reason I enjoy the baby so much. She is as disorganized as I am.

And let's face it. There is entirely too much organization these days. We are being different, the baby & me!

THE BOY SCOUTS are organized. The Campfire Girls are organized. The Teenagers are organized. The Little League is organized. The Bridge Ladies are organized. Even parents are organized so much they get disorganized!

Ah, HAH! Maybe THAT'S the trouble!

Maybe everything is getting completely out of hand overly organized. Like the U.S. Army. Where you need seven copies of everything & are called to muster regularly.

Maybe too many Organization Men are frustrated so they decide to do a little organizing on their own & pretty soon they're got EVERYBODY organized.

ORGANIZATION wears me out. The minute I'm organized, I become disorganized. Rebelling to my happier state.

The efficiency expert just might agree with my theory.

I would invite the efficiency expert to stay for Tea. I might even let him—or her—hold the baby. While I make a few calls for scouts, mend a baseball mitt & bake a few cookies for Bridge Club.

BUT YOU know what will happen?

I'll be fresh out of Tea . . . Completely disorganized!

SYMPHONY

Dear Editor:

The Lafayette Lions Club has just had one of those rewarding experiences that seem to be so rare these troubled days. They have been privileged to sponsor a program of serious music by the California Youth Symphony, a group of talented youngsters who have been graced by God with a gift of greatness—that of making people happy with beautiful music.

So many times, in recent months, we have heard of troubled and delinquent youth. How many times have we heard of the good things that our youngsters can do? Too few, too few. The Lafayette Lions are proud to have been able to prove that all youth is not bad and flamboyant.

We wish to thank you and your staff for the many valuable inches of publicity which preceded our program. Several people, when exchanging their Sun coupons for student tickets, blessed not only the Lions but the Sun papers for presenting this program.

LOUIS A. REPETTO,
Secretary.

COVERAGE

Dear Editor:

(Note: Following Sun Publisher Herman Silverman's trip recently to the Panama Canal Zone, during which he covered Operation Solidarity, this letter was received from Ambassador Joseph S. Farland, of Panama.)

Dear Mr. Silverman: I appreciate very much the two enclosed columns which you forwarded to me.

These columns reflect that you covered a great deal more of the Isthmian area than many of your associates during Operation Solidarity; this gives rise to the breadth of your observations.

I am appreciative also of your kind remarks relating to the United States Embassy activities in Panama.

JOSEPH S. FARLAND

ORPHANS

Dear Editor:

The girl scouts of Troops 297 and 341 wish to thank you so much for the story and picture you did for our Korean orphanage.

Because of this and as a result of our speaking to other groups we have sent four large boxes totaling 80 pounds to Korea. We are sure there will be many big smiles when they open our boxes.

We have used the proceeds from our cookie sales to pay the postage.

Please keep us in mind if at any time in the future you hear of someone who has things to discard for we intend to keep on sending to the Kumkok Orphanage and appreciate all contributions.

Do You Have Make-Up And Husband Troubles?

(Men, what do you think of that awful green stuff that women dab over their eyes? And mascara? And gobs of cosmetics? Well, the girls have a right to their defense, so here're a few thoughts written by the "Associate Publisher.")

By ELEANOR SILVERMAN

The ads promise "a bright and youthful you" if we women will use the right shade of eye shadow, the perfect color eye liner and foundations that will erase your face.

"Vogue" magazine writes there are seven deadly sins: Do you venture out of the house without proper make up? Do you let your hair go dull? And on and on.

Well, who am I to fight these ads? Not at my age anyway. A person just can't afford to take a chance. It's a lot like knocking on wood—you know it won't do any good, but . . .

Properly frightened by the beauty ads, I dash into the house at the early hour of 4:30, after a day's work at The Sun office, to prepare for a 6 p.m. dinner date. A glance at the hall mirror reminds me that we modern women can certainly be thankful for all the beauty preparations—who would want to go to a dance looking like that? Ugh!

And so to work

And so I proceed to the bathroom mirror and spend a good hour applying, meticulously, and according to all the directions of the beauty experts—the liquid foundation, the color foundation, the erase, the eye shadow, the eye liner, the rouge, the eyebrow pencil . . .

Oh, yes, don't forget the eyelash curler. That's the one that takes the time because you have to hold it on each eye for at least the count of 20. An hour has passed, but it was worth it! Behold, "the new you!"

Then, bright and rosy cheeked, my 11-year-old daughter comes skipping into the bathroom.

"Mother! Those lines at the end of your eyebrows look silly."

"Oh, well, I can easily rub that off, honey. Thanks," I mutter, not too gratefully.

Well, maybe she's right. You have to be careful not to look over-made up.

Well, look who's next?

Next visitor—my smiling and exhausted-from-a-hard-day's-work husband.

"Hi, honey." He kisses me on the cheek, then withdraws in horror.

"What did you do to your face? What are you trying to do? That green stuff on your eyes looks ghostly! You're too red on the cheeks."

"Is this better, dear?"

"Yes, but you still look funny."

Which reminds me . . .

As I rub away with the damp wash rag, I am reminded of the time that Herman had lunch with a beautiful, red-headed publicity gal.

During the luncheon conversation, I tried to peek at Herman's face to see if he was covering up that disgusted look he always gets when he sees too much make up. You know, the look I know so well. But I was relieved to note that apparently he was hiding the horror he must have felt in viewing this lined, painted, lipstick, eye-shadowed face of the beautiful red-head.

Later, I commented:

"I can now see what you mean when you talk about too much make up. Wasn't her make up awful?"

"What make up?" he asked.

On with the repairs

Oh well, back to my mirror. By this time I had finished repairing the repairing job.

As we walked out of the house, I took one last look at my reflection in the hall mirror and saw an image not too unlike the one I had seen going in—a long hour-and-a-half before.

Letters to The Editor

In the hustle and bustle of great cities today there is little time to "be still within" and take a long and appreciative look at nature around us—such as the lovely groves and trees, hills, flowers and streams, and enjoy peace of mind.

That is why we love Pleasant Hill. The low rolling hills, trees and flowers. The great and established walnut groves, flowering trees and green lawns. In the majority, well cared for, and with pride for the many young people who are owning their own homes for the first time.

PLEASANT HILL "growing pains" are slowly disappearing—college and schools and culture are being established. This was certainly proven this year when we listened to the wonderful musical festivals presented by the schools of Pleasant Hill. The evidence of fine instruction was something appreciated by the entire community, and the moral support of the faithful parents was very gratifying.

We are not alone in this pleasure. We feel sure when we have seen Pleasant Hill grow from 5000 to past 25,000 population in the past eight years. The growing of commercial business and, with freeway landscaping coming in our direction from Orinda, Lafayette and Walnut Creek bringing eye appeal and more "stay-at-home" employment for the growing population, brings increased pride and security to we home owners in Pleasant Hill.

It is a refuge in the evening when we return to the lovely peace of this community, that can become a garden for peaceful living, plus income. We are a community unto ourselves—a potential haven away from the "too big" cities. We may step into our individual gardens at night and hear not a sound, and smell the fresh clean air, looking into a cloudless, smogless sky, millions of stars and the biggest moon outside of Texas, of course.

Let us not give away any part of it. Let's keep our Pleasant Hill refuge and the lovely name "Pleasant Hill"—there are few such spots left in this USA. Wonder who thought of that name. It is a lovely one.

MRS. J. M. NESBIT SR.

Dropped, Like a Brick

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors has done it again—voted 3-2 against a measure which we feel would have been invaluable for our county.

That measure is a charter form of government for Contra Costa County, which is now the largest general law county in California.

Establishing a charter form of government is not a simple task, and organizing the plans for such an undertaking would require a great deal of patience, understanding and hard work.

BUT IT COULD BE done, and the eventual result would be a far better form of government than that under which we operate now. For one thing, there would be fewer elected officials, exactly how many depending on how the charter is organized.

And we would have a county manager, similar to the position now filled by the county administrator, to whom all county employees except those which remained elective would be responsible.

The Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association has gone on record as wishing to make this form of government available to the people if they want it.

The supervisors, by their action, have effectively stopped us, who are taxpayers and residents, from even learning anything about the matter, much less being able to decide if we want it.

Certainly a full study of the procedures involved in establishing this form of government and the advantages of it should be made and presented to the people, who have the right to decide what is best.

This has been recommended and suggested in the past. The Sun has gone on record favoring it, as have many other organizations.

Certainly the matter should not be summarily dropped as it has been.

It is neither a just nor sound action on the part of the supervisors.

We're All Susceptible

Let's face facts. Mental illness plays no favorites. None of us are immune to it—not even our children.

It strikes one in 10—all ages and walks of life, and it fills more hospital beds than all other diseases combined.

And strangely enough, or perhaps that is the reason, there is still a social stigma attached to a person who is mentally ill, although that illness may be as real, and as curable, as appendicitis.

WE WHO LIVE in Contra Costa County, are fortunate. We have an active mental health association, a United Crusade Agency, which is willing and able to help us out.

Although there are few facilities to help those in need, this agency can at least provide guidance. And all you have to do is pick up your phone and call YE 5-1015.

This agency is battling mental illness on four fronts with the cooperation of the national association. These are: research to support and further projects on treatment and prevention; treatment to insure best possible care through adequate hospital and clinical facilities; education to present facts thus relieving fear and increasing chances of early treatment and recovery; and help guide patients to proper psychiatric care when illness strikes or assist a returned patient to find a welcome, a place to live, a job and follow-up medical care.

IT IS OBVIOUS, considering this program, that there are many things we as individuals can do to help those who have this type of problem.

Awareness of mental illness as a curable disease is the first step in the chain, and that is something that we can all achieve.

Incidentally, the association is interested in encouraging young people to consider a career in the mental health field and will be glad to explain the possibilities to any young person who is interested.

The Staff Corner

His Chance Is Gone . . .

By NORMAN COLBY

A young friend of mine, age 19, has a problem. He has no particular interests in life, other than hot-roads. And the time has come for him to make a living.

He has wasted his teen years. While still in high school, he told me once that he hoped to go into the Army and learn about electronics.

BUT HE LEFT high school at 16, and then flunked the Army physical.

He used to tell me that there was nothing in high school that he would be able to use. And he was right, to some extent.

What that boy needed was some sort of vocational training which simply is not available in this area. Here, you are either a liberal arts man or else the guy who is only good enough to pump gasoline at the corner station.

Those precious years when this lad could have learned the craftsman's art and developed a strong, positive interest in life are gone.

THERE WAS NO older man who could have told him that there is a dignity and pride in being a blue-collar craftsman, no one whose example could have shown him the way. There were only the neighborhood insurance salesmen, real estate men and retail executives.

The only blue-collar man his neighborhood seemed to have one obsession—seeing that his children "get an education" and stay out of the craft occupations.

And so my 19-year-old friend has let his most important learning years go by, and has nothing to show for it.

But he has developed a philosophy. There are so many quick ways to make money in this world that only a sap would pick a work-a-day existence.

MY YOUNG friend is one of suburbia's most notable by-products.

There is an emptiness in his life which his youthful vigor will not always fill.

Orinda residents who will model the latest fashions include Mrs. Robert Eckhoff Jr. of Donna Maria Way; Mrs. Robert Haaf of La Comana; Mrs. Kenneth Holland of El Sueno; Mrs. William Ingram of La Cintilla; Mrs. David Stearns of Moraga Via; Mrs. Alan McDowell of Via Floreado, and Mrs. Francis Alan Watson Jr. of Meadow View Road. Summer Is 'Fashions'...

The theme "Spring into Summer" was portrayed while the members of the Immaculata Guild and friends attended the fashion show sponsored for the Parish school fund of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Walnut Creek.

The guest themselves with their ensembles were fashion news as they entered the Garden room of the Claremont Hotel.

Dress forms, outfitted with cotton summery swatches were centerpieces on the tables and miniature hatboxes contained favors.

Mrs. James Robinson, guild president, welcomed the guests and introduced Mrs. Sal Blasquez, general chairman of the event.

Miss Elsa Niemann commented as the models promaded the ramp in fashion colors of greens, yellows, golds, reds, oranges, turquoise and breathtaking hot pink! These gay colors and white were mixed in creations of prints, stripes and two and three toned fashions for all sportswear including the now-popular "Cookie-Coats", culottes and sport sweaters.

Summer dresses were shown with low-backs, flared and ruffled skirts; bright sheaths and bloused and peplum styles were also featured. Coats, both summer and dress were modeled in white, black and beige with black; suits and dress ensembles were in part, fabrics of voile, silk, embroidered and lace.

The highlight of this fashion event was the viewing of a full length mink coat.

The accessories used were straw hats and bags for sportswear with middy necklaces while stylish hats and patent bags for dress with dangle earrings.

Hosts Luncheon John Muir Hospital Guilds Raise $12 000

The Ahwahnee Guild of the John Muir Memorial Hospital held a membership luncheon yesterday at the Gaslight in Walnut Creek to honor seven new members who recently have joined the guild.

They are Mesdames Regino A. Velozo, Raymond E. Myers, W. L. Umstead, Robert Burton, Arthur W. Winship, William Phillips and Lawrence R. Cloern.

Also discussed at the luncheon were plans for the guild's cocktail party to be held June 24, at the home of John Nejedly.

The theme of the party is "Cocktails on Cloud Nine" and it will be Ahwahnee's money-raising event of the year for the John Muir Memorial Hospital.

April 7 the Sun printed a story reporting that Sierra Guild of the John Muir Memorial Hospital Auxiliary had raised $12,000 of a three year goal of $15,000 in 18 months.

Actually, all of the John Muir Memorial Hospital guilds have cooperated and worked to reach the $12,000 mark.

We regret this error and hope this correction will set the record straight.

Las Lomas Dumps Bulldogs As Acalanes Rolls Along

Acalanes moved into undisputed possession of first place in the Foothill League baseball standings last week when Las Lomas upset Alhambra, 2-1.

The Bulldogs have only lost two games—both to Las Lomas.

The Dons only loss was to Alhambra, 3-2, in extra innings.

The Knights will try to work their magic on Acalanes Tuesday when the two teams collide on the Dons' home field. The Dons had little trouble defeating the Knights in their first meeting of the season.

Las Lomas scored the winning run against Alhambra in the bottom of pines on a walk with the bases loaded.

BILL RENNY, who relieved starter Dick Nye in the eighth, picked up the win.

(All games begin at 4 p.m.)

In Tuesday's play, the Dons posted a 5-2 win over Miramonte to maintain their hold on first place.

Dennis Toll and Tom Strain limited the Mats to two hits. Toll went the first four innings with Strain pitching the final three.

ACALANES scored in the first when Stew Fox, the leadoff batter, tripled and came home on John Jones' single.

Acalanes scored a single run in the second and collected three more in the fifth as they put together a walk and three hits. The big blow was a triple off the bat of Strain.

Miramonte's two runs came in the sixth with Pete Boyle opening the inning with a walk, going to second on a single by Vic Clarke. He came home on an error.

Clarke tallied when the Dons made another error on an attempted double play.

Acalanes outthrew Miramonte 8-2.

Toll, Fox and Jones each had two hits for the Dons.

HILGER got Miramonte's only other safe blow, an infield single, in the first.

Other league action saw Alhambra forced to come from behind and win in overtime over perky Piedmont 6-5. Each club collected 10 hits while committing three errors.

The clubs were even at the end of the first as each bagged a run. Piedmont grabbed the league as they tallied twice in the fourth and twice in the sixth.

Alhambra got a lone run in the fifth and evened it with three in the seventh.

The issue was decided in the eighth as Bob Nelson beat out an infield single.

Greg Coakley relieved Bill Clayton and walked Bill Hitt and John Burke, the first two batters he faced.

Doug Wolter then hit a ground ball down the first base line and Nelson scampered home with the two important winning runs.

Al Bartellani started on the mound for Alhambra. He was replaced by Wolter in the fourth.

IN OTHER Foothill League games, Las Lomas had problems but outlasted the San Ramon Wolves, 6-5.

San Ramon scored twice in the first and once in the second with their final two runs coming in the seventh.

Las Lomas scored lone runs in the second, fourth and fifth frames and iced the contest with three runs in the sixth.

THE KNIGHTS' Jim Botti led off with a base on balls in the sixth and Gordon Ratow put him on second with a sharp single.

Greg Bertognoli was out on an infield fly and then Bill Renny tripled to drive in two runs and scored himself when catcher Harold Stephenson singled.

San Ramon outthrew the Knights 8-5.

In other games last Thursday, Acalanes blasted lowly Piedmont, 8-1, while Miramonte was being upset by San Ramon, 4-1.

Junior varsity games last week were rained out for the third time this season. On the abbreviated schedule played to date, Acalanes is the league leader. They are the only defeated team in the five-team league. Piedmont does not play J.V. ball.

Games on tap for this afternoon at 4 p.m. are as follows: Alhambra at Acalanes; Del Valle at San Ramon; Las Lomas at Miramonte.

WC Merchants To Hold Its First Tryouts

Tryouts for the Walnut Creek Merchants baseball team will be conducted at Civic Field in Walnut Creek at 1 p.m. on May 7 and 14.

Joe McElroy, manager, stated that any high school graduate who has played junior college, college or semi-pro baseball is urged to attend the tryouts.

The local team was established in 1960. Games are being scheduled with outstanding semi-pro clubs throughout the area.

Home games are played at Civic Field, Walnut Creek.

Pleasant Hill's NBC Team Plays At DVC Sunday

Pleasant Hill's entry in the National Baseball Congress will meet Husted's Blue Sox Sunday at 2 p.m. at Diablo Valley College field.

Pleasant Hill was washed out of a scheduled game with Richmond last Sunday.

The team won its opening game of the season, 9-3, over Jackson-Goldie Ford of San Francisco, two weeks ago.

The Pleasant Hill Baseball Association sponsors the team.

TOUGH TO BEAT—The strength or weakness of a baseball team usually lies in its pitching staff. Acalanes has lost one game this year, a 3-2 decision to Alhambra two weeks ago. Due mainly to the strong right arms of these three young men, the Dons now are at the top of the Foothill League standings. From left to right: Tom Strain, Brian Allen and Denny Toll.

DVC, 1-0, in 9th

San Jose City College scored a run in the ninth inning to edge Diablo Valley College, 1-0, Tuesday in a Coast Conference game at the DVC field.

Southpaw Dennis Carter of DVC ran into a streak of wildness in the final frame which led to his downfall after pitching brilliantly for eight innings.

He had allowed only three hits and two walks up until the ninth when he suddenly lost control and walked two straight men.

Rightfielder Jerry Chiaramonte of San Jose promptly lined a single to right center scoring the lead runner. Carter settled down and got the next two men, but the damage had been done.

THE VIKINGS offered no resistance in the bottom of the inning and were handed their fifth defeat in eight league games. They now have a 4-11 overall record.

outs for the game. It was the first time he has gone nine innings this year.

The left-hander had a perfect game for 4½ innings when an error allowed a San Jose batter to reach first base. His no-hit lasted until the sixth with two men out. San Jose then added single hits in the seventh and eighth before Chiaramonte got the decisive one.

HAL GILSON was equally as brilliant on the mound for San Jose. The 6-5 left-hander allowed only three hits and struck out 12 while walking three.

The Vikings major threat came in the fourth inning when they put two men on base with no-body out.

Mike Mayne reached second when the catcher dropped the third strike and then overthrew first base. He went to third on an infield error which put Mark Bowers on first. The next two men struck out and Bowers was picked off first to end the inning.

Today the Vikings travel to San Jose in hopes of squaring things with their conquerors of Tuesday.

The loss of a partner can close a business for good!

Here's how Business Insurance from New York Life can help keep it going

As your lawyer will tell you, the death of one of your partners spells the legal death of your partnership unless you have an express agreement to the contrary. The effect on your business can be serious, perhaps fatal.

Of course, you can try to keep the business going by taking the heirs into the firm. That is, if they are all adults and want to come in, and you want them as partners. Often this proves impossible, or very unsatisfactory. You can buy the heirs out, if a price can be agreed upon—but could you raise the cash? In many cases the business will have to be liquidated, piece by piece, and at sacrifice prices!

Fortunately, the problem can be solved. A business continuation agreement, funded by Business Insurance from New York Life, can guarantee surviving partners complete ownership of a firm. It also assures the heirs of the deceased partner a fair price, in cash, for their interest in the business.

This is only one of many important uses of modern Business Insurance from New York Life. For the finest insurance plans for your business, see

50 Years as a "Brother"

Fifty years as a Brother of the Christian Schools, many of them spent at St. Mary's College, will be observed here tomorrow by Brother V. Julius, F.S.C., instructor in romance languages.

The 71-year-old educator will be honored at a solemn mass of thanksgiving in the chapel of Our Lady on the campus at 10 a.m. and a buffet luncheon in Oliver Hall.

Hundreds of his former students and friends will attend the mass and luncheon, according to Brother Julian, F.S.C., program chairman.

IN THE EVENING, Brother S. Albert, F.S.C., president of St. Mary's, will be host at a private dinner for Brothers of the Christian Schools.

Brother Julius has taught in Christian Brothers Schools throughout California, including terms as director of St. Mary's High School, Berkeley, and vice principal of Sacred Heart High School, San Francisco.

He was first assigned to the faculty of St. Mary's College in 1933, left to go to the new Cathedral

High School in Los Angeles in 1943, and rejoined the faculty of the language department at St. Mary's in 1955.

A noteworthy feature of Brother Julius' career has been his great success as a prefect. All in all, Brother Julius devoted more than 20 years to this demanding work; six years at St. Vincent's School, San Rafael; seven years at St. Mary's High School, Berkeley, and six years at St. Mary's College.

HE WAS head prefect at the college during the early years of World War II when St. Mary's was the site of the largest naval pre-flight school in the nation.

Brother Julius was born in Asturias Province, Spain, the fifth son in a family of 10—nine boys and one girl.

At 13, he was sent to Cuba to live with two older brothers, and at 17 came to California to attend St. Mary's College, then located in Oakland.

While studying under the Christian Brothers, who operated the college, he discovered his vocation, he discovered his vocation, he discovered his vocation.

HE RECEIVED the religious habit at Martinez on April 29, 1910—the first Spaniard to become a Christian Brother in the United States.

It was also announced that Dr. Donald J. Cook, chairman of the committee on visiting scientists, American Chemical Society, will be visiting lecturer at St. Mary's next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Dr. Cook's program will include a series of lectures and seminars for chemistry students and a talk to the faculty on "Research in the Liberal Arts College."

Arrangements have also been made for a special lecture next Thursday evening for science teachers in neighboring school districts.

DR. COOK will discuss the latest techniques for teaching science at the elementary and secondary school level. The lecture will begin at 8 p.m. in Le La Salle Lounge on the Moraga Valley campus.

Presently professor of chemistry at DePauw University, Indiana, Dr. Cook's research field is the chemistry of nitrogen heterocyclic compounds.

He is a graduate of Augustana College, received his master's degree from the University of Illinois, and his doctorate from Indiana University.

Dynamite Case Not Usual For Juvenile Director

By NORMAN COLBY
The Walnut Creek boy who tied a firecracker to a stick of dynamite and lit the firecracker, and who was greatly disappointed when the firecracker fizzled—that boy's parents may have problems.

But that sort of boy isn't much of a problem for Robert Holcomb, 43, director of the Walnut Creek Police Department Juvenile Bureau.

Holcomb, who received a $3000 education free of charge from the city, is more concerned with the middle range of juvenile offenses which are the most numerous—like petty theft, violations of alcoholic beverage laws, curfew violations, truancy, malicious mischief, runaways.

NOW AND then he is confronted with a young man who has been caught in a burglary, or a girl guilty of some sex offense—but there are relatively rare.

"Please understand," Holcomb said. "The Juvenile Bureau is not for the purpose of investigating crimes or offenses committed by young people, even though it is a part of the investigative division."

Holcomb's job also includes developing police programs for dealing with delinquency, presenting cases in juvenile court and preparing cases for county probation department, disposing of juvenile cases where guilt has been determined, working with other groups to these ends.

of a stick of dynamite at high school, also Fire Marshal William Shisler, who was anxious to render it harmless and Holcomb, who was willing to talk it over with the boy and his parents.

The investigative trail led to another local boy who had stolen a complete stick of dynamite from his grandfather, who was blowing up stumps a year ago, and the firecracker incident.

This boy's attempt to set off the dynamite with the firecracker didn't work because the firecracker fizzled and the frustrated lad didn't have another firecracker.

HOLCOMB estimated that the juvenile population would be "minus one" if the firecracker had gone off.

But both boys were not considered of the delinquent type, and warnings served to close the case.

Most other juvenile problems are not so easy to solve.

The city's $3000 sent Holcomb to the Delinquency Control Institute at the University of Southern California, Los Angeles, and kept him there as a scholar for three months.

THERE WAS a heavy home-work routine, seminars and even some rides with the Los Angeles Police Department Juvenile Patrol.

A couple of "rumbles" were Holcomb's main recollection during those rides.

Airplane Customizing In Contest

Boys and girls will have the opportunity to enter a model airplane customizing contest, sponsored by Simon's Hardware Company, Walnut Creek.

They will buy their model planes at Simon's, retaining the sales slip, and turn in the finished product between May 3 and May 18, which is the deadline.

Carl Peters, manager of the Sporting Goods Department, said a trophy and an honorable mention award will be given in each of three classes, for the boys and girls up to 9 years old, 10 to 12 and 13 to 16.

The judging will be held May 18 at Simon's Sporting Goods Department.

The Simon sales slip will be turned in with the finished model, and an application form can be filled out at that time, said Peters.

Judging by local residents will be based on originality, neatness and customizing treatment pertaining to design and appearance.

Peters said Simon's recent model car customizing contest was a great success and prompted this new contest. Last time, Walnut Creek's mayor presented the awards.

Refreshments will be served after the performance.

For reservations contact the center office, AT 3-8575, or tickets may be obtained at the door.

Try Reading 'Class' Ads For Humor, Pathos, Profit!

By JEAN JERNIGAN

Poverty has led me to a fascinating new world of reading! We needed a desk, the budget said "No!" emphatically, so I turned to the Sun classified ad section to see if someone had an old beat up desk for sale that we could afford.

I wasn't sure whether to start reading ads under "miscellaneous for sale," or under "household goods." It really didn't matter where I started, for the contents of both proved so intriguing I read on and on, even forgetting why I was reading.

BELIEVE ME, The Sun Classified section has everything in it from maternity clothes to well rotted manure... at $5 a load yet!

Aside from some of the more unusual ads, like "a brand new Foresider with built in Hemingway," or "Am responsible for my wife's debts. She can have anything she desires", there is also humor, pathos and tragedy in the class section.

Take for example, the lady who placed an ad to sell "one seldom used love seat. I didn't have much success with it, but maybe YOU will!"

Then there's always a few sad little items like, "Lost, April 14, Ivy Drive area, black puppy, white chest, long tail. DR 6-4828." I sure hope that long tail is wagging happily at home by now.

HAVING DECIDED I would have to forego the motor scooter and Japanese garden along with the antique dining set advertised, I spotted an ad for fricassee hens. The hens, it appears, are not cooked, but very much alive and clucking and may be purchased for 60 cents apiece. Someone must have wearied of the hen business.

The modern attractive room, bath and patio at a rest home sounded most tempting. I could use the rest, but found I was disqualified. I'm "ambulatory" but won't fit the "elderly" at least for a year or two.

Longingly I eyed the ads describing "Ironing, my home or yours", "experienced lady desires housekeeping, child care." Some day, I thought, this is where I'll get some help.

We can do without any more musical instruments at our house. From the number advertised it would appear more than one set of parents has reached the same conclusion after a weary year of listening to practice!

"CATERPILLAR 20, completely rebuilt" ... they must mean some sort of vehicle, but at first glance I thought someone had a 20-year-old caterpillar, the fuzzy ones, you know. It's amazing what vivid pictures some perfectly sensible ads bring to one's mind.

Our number two son is out on the patio right now sanding down his "new" desk. With a coat of paint it will be like new and the $5 suited our budget just fine.

Top Award Banquet For Scouts

Some 75 community leaders, industrial and professional key personnel from all parts of Contra Costa County, plus Berkeley and Albany in Alameda County, were hosts at a banquet to boy scouts and explorers of Mt. Diablo Council who had earned a top award—an Eagle badge or a Quartermaster award.

Two American Field Service students were special guests, attending with Consulate officials tending with consulate officials. The students were Jens Belderweiden of Germany, and Eli Samimero of the Philippines.

"The Conquest of Inner Space" was the address given by Captain W. C. Meyer, commanding officer and professor of naval science, University of California.

Vocational choice, social integration, and the formulation of an altruistic life philosophy were the three principal values of scouting, as testified by William Stock of Danville, Eagle Scout speaker.

Stock added that scouting, however, has its frustrations because of the same factors which frustrate the community and the nation as a whole.

He rapped lack of responsibility, complacency, and conformity as weaknesses, at the same time emphasizing that as citizens of the United States we have the privilege of choosing our own rulers.

Eight area young men received the "Top Award."

They are Ross Brown of Post 323, biology; Roy Dunlop, Post 323, commercial artist; Ronald Himes, Troop 220, law; Wallace Murray, Troop 234, engineering; Lorin Peters, Post 323, clergy; Roger Pito, Troop 234, banking; Edward Yates, Troop 214, agriculture; Robert Yates, Troop 214, law.

Still Time to Register For Business Symposium

The deadline for reservations for the third annual Business and Industrial Outlook Symposium, scheduled for this week at Diablo Valley College, has been extended to next Wednesday noon, according to Iona M. Booth, general manager of the sponsoring Contra Costa County Development Association.

The conference will start at 1:30 p.m. in the college gymnasium. It will feature four afternoon speakers and one dinner speaker, all of them discussing phases of centralized federal government and its effect upon local government and industry.

Afternoon speakers will be Dr. George L. Mehren of the University of California, District Attorney John Nejedly, Standard Oil tax consultant W. Needham Lambert and Dr. Lyman R. Fink, head of General Electric's Atomic Products Division.

Dr. Howard Kershner of New York City, economist and author, will speak on "Both Sides of the Iron Curtain" at the dinner session in the Student Activities Building.

Kershner, author of the book "God, Gold and Government," is president of Christian Freedom Foundation, Inc.

Reservations, at $7.50 each, may be made at the Martinez offices of the Development Association. The fee will cover dinner, refreshments, tip and tax.

The social hour will be held at the Contra Costa Golf Club near the Diablo Valley Campus. Dr. Drummond J. McCunn, symposium committee chairman, will moderate the afternoon session and C. P. Tanner, president of the association, will be toastmaster at the dinner.

Pageant Will Have Several Dance Groups

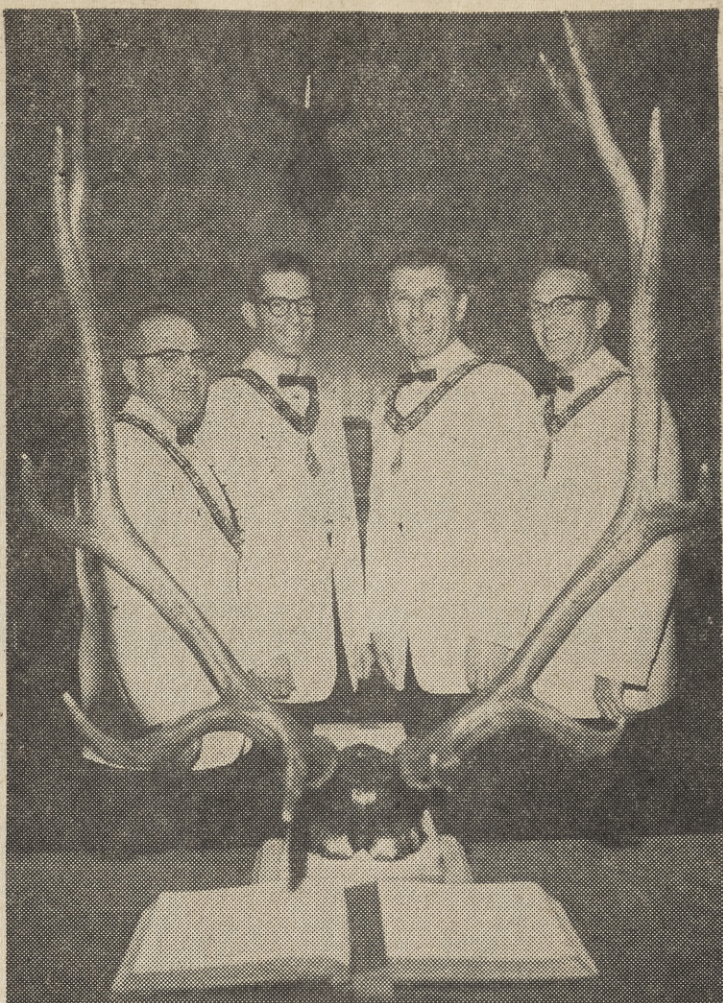

The sixth annual Diablo Pageant of Arts will be held May 27-30 in civic center, Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Louise Gillette, chairman of the performing arts division, has announced that culture and entertainment will again be combined in this year's pageant featuring musical concerts and talented dance groups.

In addition to the Pleasant Hill High School dance group, advanced stunts in classical ballet, modern dance, tap and creative dance from several studios will perform.

'Have and Have Not' Is The Problem Facing U.S.

Why do underdeveloped countries fall so easily prey to Communist blandishments and promises, and what can the United States do to counteract this form of infiltration?

Dr. Robert E. Burns, president of the University of the Pacific at Stockton, will seek to answer these questions when he appears at Diablo Valley College Thursday.

He is the eighth lecturer in a series on Communism sponsored by the Contra Costa Junior College District.

DR. BURNS' discussion will center around the ethical problems that develop in attempting to solve the differences between the "have and have-not" nations of the world.

His talk will be given at Contra Costa College in San Pablo next Wednesday. Both lectures will be presented in the school gymnasium at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Burns' appearance in the western section of the county will be somewhat in the nature of a homecoming trip—he is a graduate of the Richmond Union High School. He is also the first alumnus of the University of the Pacific, to become its president. He has made five postwar observation trips through Western Europe, and has traveled in Alaska and Mexico. In 1956 he was chairman of a seminar which visited principal cities in Russia.

IN 1957 he conducted a university-sponsored tour of parts of Russia and its satellite countries, and in 1958 he led a university tour around the world.

More recently—last summer—he made a 45-day study trip that covered 10 Latin American countries.

Dr. Joost Sluis of the University of California's medical school staff, spoke last week.

He said that Soviet and Chinese Reds have gained such a preponderance of control in British Guiana that it is likely the party will win important elections next August 21.

JUST RETURNED from a trip to South America and the British colony, Dr. Sluis said he questioned one claim that three out of four university students are Communists. But that there appears to be no doubt that "75 per cent of them believe Red propaganda that the United States has grown powerful and wealthy by exploiting the Latin-American people," he said.

Teacher Salaries High; But Contest Unwelcome

Acalanes High School District trustees devoted the major portion of their last meeting to teacher's salary schedules and the 1961-62 portion of the district's five year building program.

Trustees Dr. Ralph Hall and Glenn Allen reported the progress of discussions with teacher representatives on proposed salary schedule adjustments.

Comparisons have been made of the Acalanes district salary schedule with those of the bay counties. These show that the Acalanes district tops all other high school districts in Contra Costa County and is among the leading districts in lifetime earnings that may be accrued by 30-year career teachers of these counties.

MENTION WAS made that few teachers of the district are included in the lowest salary classification and that the maximum salary provision surpassed that of most districts.

All members agreed they were anxious to continue to be able to attract and hold competent teachers, but did not intend to engage in a salary contest with other, richer districts.

As a further consideration, the effect that increasing the number of students in a class, with the resultant need for fewer teachers, which would provide more funds for salaries, was also discussed.

Ross Reagan, assistant superintendent for business, presented a preliminary financial forecast for 1961-62 which indicated that next year will be a peak year for construction in the district and will be the biggest building year in the district's history.

ADHERING TO the long range building program, the first unit of a new high school in Moraga will be constructed and a 14 classroom building at Del Valle.

"The coming year will be a tight one financially," Reagan said, "but after that we will be over the hump."

"In 1962-63 we will spend about half of what we will next year for school building construction. None of this can be postponed if we are to be able to provide facilities for the 400 additional students we will enroll in each coming year."

In other action the board approved the employment of teachers, including the appointment of a district guidance counselor; accepted the grading of the school site near Rheem in Moraga, and extended agreements for the summer use of the Miramonte swimming pool for community instructional purposes.

Next meeting of the board will be held May 8, 1961, at 7:30 p.m.

Rehabilitation Council Hears About Alcoholism

The Contra Costa Rehabilitation Council heard a report from the recently organized Citizens Advisory Committee on Alcoholism Wednesday evening at the Health Department Building, Martinez.

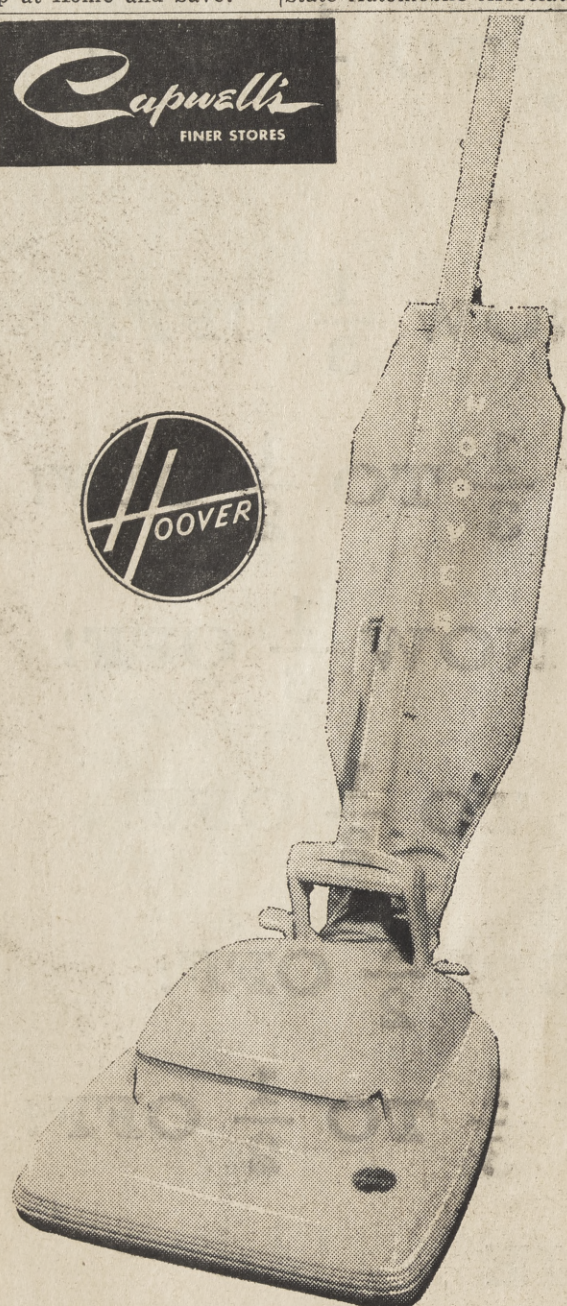

Mrs. Eleanor Kunitz, Rehabilitation Council Project director, said both groups are seeking practical means for restoring to productive living those handicapped by a serious crippling condition.

"The Rehabilitation Council welcomes this opportunity to learn more about alcoholism, one of the disabling conditions which concerns us."

"It is our purpose to work with all community groups to strengthen and coordinate services for the handicapped."

Chairman of the Committee on Alcoholism, O. H. Carstens, spoke about plans for the coming year.

These Gals Dress Like Queens for Little Cash

Sewing a lost art? Not at Las Lomas High School where senior girls are sewing beautiful, professional clothes that they can wear to college with pride in the fall. They will model them at the senior mothers' dinner at Las Lomas Tuesday.

Joan Vallejo has made a sharply detailed black and white checked suit that she could arrive on campus in with complete confidence in her style sense.

This suit would be appropriate at church, job hunting or traveling. Total cost for material was $9.70.

Designing and sewing a fashionable black satin and velvet cocktail dress, Vicki Ball will be well dressed at any college social function.

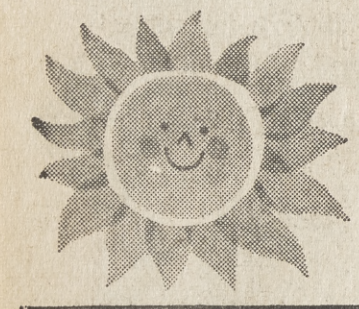

Copy of an original model which Vicki altered to suit her own imagination, the dress material totaled $14.30.

A red wool suit of smart lines complements Pat Lee's dark beauty. Total cost $17.

The advanced sewing class is part of the homemaking program at the high school with 260 students enrolled. Eight students from the homemaking classes plan to major in Home Economics in college.

VICKI Ball models here original black satin and velvet dress. Cost: $14.30.

DVC Players To Present O'Casey Play Tonight

"I Knock at the Door," a staged dramatic reading in two acts by Irish playwright Sean O'Casey, will be performed at Diablo Valley College in their Viking Theatre Building tonight, tomorrow and again on May 4, 5 and 6.

The play has been staged and directed by Harvey Berman, director of drama at Diablo Valley College. "I Knock at the Door" is unique in that all action is carried out through pantomime. In all, six actors portray 27 different parts.

Paul Bengston and Diane Himes, Walnut Creek, have been cast in lead roles. Paul portrays Johnny Casside, whose poor eyesight causes him hardships and unrest. Diane Himes is Mrs. Casside, burdened with a heavy heart and a never-ending devotion to her young son.

Admission is fifty cents with a student activity card and one dollar for general admission. Tickets may be purchased in advance at the Associated Students Office at the college or by phoning MU 5-1230, extension 26.

The husbands of Linnet Unit members and Linnet Juniors have traded their golf clubs and patio barbecues for paint brushes and packing boxes.

They are helping their wives move the Thrift Shop to its new location at 1601 Main Street, Walnut Creek.

The shop, which is operated to benefit the physically handicapped receiving treatment at the Mount Diablo Therapy Center, will have a clearance sale this week at 1547 East Street. All merchandise will be sold for half price.

Noted Singer Will Perform At YFC Rally

The Contra Costa County Youth for Christ will hold a special Y.F.C. rally tomorrow night at 7:45 p.m. in the Acalanes High School auditorium.

Special guest will be Tony Fontane, a former recording, television, radio and stage star.

He acquired nation-wide success when his hit record of "Cold Cold Heart" sold over a million copies. He was guest star on the award winning "Ed Sullivan Show," the "Steve Allen Show," the "Hoagy Carmichael Show," and many other top New York and Hollywood programs.

He also made a series of record hits such as "Syncopated Clock," "Stranger in the City," "Vanity," "Love," "Bring Back the Thrill" and others.

His conversion came about as the result of a near fatal automobile accident; and he now dedicates his God-given talent to a world in need of pure ministry of sacred songs.

Fontane will make one appearance only in this area. He will be accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Betty Jo McPhee of Oakland.

The rally will be opened by the Youth for Christ teenage choir under the direction of Mr. Tom Fetke. Wayne Zellmer, the Youth for Christ director, will be master of ceremonies.

The public is invited to attend and hear this outstanding singer.

Accessories Add Comfort, Beauty to Deck Living

If the term "deck living" implies no more to you than sitting on a deck, you're missing the point. In the modern sense, it means a way of life, and it makes no difference whether your deck is a true deck, a terrace, or a patio. Whichever it is, you will want to make it more livable.

This, of course, means adding the accessories of comfort such as deck chairs, lounges, benches and tables. It also means adding the aesthetic pleasures which you derive from having plants and shrubs near at hand. If necessary the furniture can wait, but the plants should go in now if you would enjoy them during the outdoor living season.

For a start, we'd pot up some common zonal geraniums. These are pot plants par excellence, and the gardener who relies heavily on them for deck decoration will never go wrong.

A DOZEN geraniums will provide a big splash of portable color and you can have them all the same or all different. Such is the supply and variety offered by members of the California Association of Nurserymen.

To offset the sun-encouraged brightness of geraniums, try a dozen tuberous begonias in the shade. C.A.N. nurserymen offer them as seedlings and as started tubers, which are easily potted up in a mix of leaf mold, sand and peat.

Overhead you can hang a few pots of fuchsias and such lesser-known summer trailers as parrot's beak, asparagus fern or white star campanula. Hang a few pots of ivy geraniums, too, if you can give them sun at least half the day.

FOR TUBING, the C.A.N. is sold on golden bamboo and can't recommend too highly its airy grace on the deck. Squat mugho pine, or one of the longer needled conifers such as Japanese black pine are well suited. Hibiscus is not only colorful, its lush greenery presents a truly gracious backdrop to outdoor living.

In beds around the patio or in tubs and planter boxes on the deck, seek the spot color of annuals. Bolster it all with some cushion chrysanthemums and you have an unbeatable combination of good things going for you.

Iris Society Show Is This Weekend

The Mt. Diablo Iris Society will present its first annual Iris show, "Color Galaxies" tomorrow from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. and Sunday from 12 noon to 6 p.m. in the Hall of Flowers at the Contra Costa County Fair Grounds, Antioch.

General chairman is David J. Lencare. Co-chairman is Mrs. Grace Mills.

Publicity and artistic arrangements chairman is Mrs. E. A. O'Connor.

Parisian to Speak

The L'Alliance Francaise du Mont Diablo will hear M. Pierre Viala of Paris during a meeting tomorrow at 8:30 p.m. in the home of Pierre Achener, 30 Vista Lane, Walnut Creek.

Start Weed Control Now

Crabgrass control may be started now. Your nurseryman can recommend a product to knock it out.

Remove the seed pods on rhododendrons as they go out of bloom to strengthen the shrub.

Rid your lawn of broad-leaved weeds by using a weed killer. Don't use it on clover lawns or dichondra, however, or you'll get rid of that, too. Read the directions before applying.

Mildew, rust and black spot (in some areas) control on roses should start before the trouble shows up—which means now.

Plant dahlias, if you haven't already. Set out bedding dahlias from nursery flats, also.

SMALLER CARS

American cars are getting smaller, reports the California State Automobile Association. The average length of the 1961 models is 198 inches, compared to 211 inches for the 1960 models.

Junior Gray Ladies Win Their Caps

A capping ceremony for junior gray ladies was held at the Red Cross Greater Mt. Diablo Chapter House on Ygnacio Valley Road, Walnut Creek.

Girls from three high schools—Acalanes, Del Valle and Pleasant Hill—were represented, according to Mrs. Louis Baumfalk, junior gray lady chairman.

Floyd Marchus, county superintendent of schools, was master of ceremonies. The invocation was given by Reverend Robert Williams, pastor of the Grace Presbyterian Church, Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Charles Wendell, chairman of the gray ladies, presented the caps at the evening ceremony at which the tea hostesses were Mrs. James Chang and Miss Leann Sowerwine.

The Junior Gray Lady pledge was read by Mrs. Sam Ferguson, Gray Lady chairman at the Oak Knoll U.S. Naval Hospital.

The girls who received the awards for 30 or more hours of Junior Gray Lady service were Miss Shayron Falkell of Lafayette, Misses Marilyn Baird and Alice Baumfalk of Pleasant Hill, and Misses Dianne Koses, Susan Aldridge and Winkie Shaw of Walnut Creek.

YUBA CITY

Yuba City, located in Sutter County in the heart of the great peach-growing and canning section in the world, is reported by the National Automobile Club to have been founded in 1849 on the site of an ancient Indian village.

Local Concert Drive Begins

The Acalanes Community Concert Association's 1961 annual membership campaign opened Monday with a dinner at Kellogg's Restaurant, Walnut Creek.

The drive will continue through tomorrow, when the program arrangements will begin.

Phil Bancroft is association president, and Mrs. Walter Gray is secretary.

RUSS ROKHAR, field representative for Community Concerts, Inc., of New York, is campaign chairman.

After dinner the workers were entertained by Mrs. Enid Jones, soprano.

It was announced that campaign headquarters at 1380 N. Main Street, Walnut Creek, will be open until noon tomorrow.

"Enthusiasm shown by workers indicates that the membership goal will be reached before the week ends and that a truly distinguished series of concerts by some of the world's finest artists will be presented during the new season," said Bancroft.

ALREADY booked are Robert Merrill, world-famous Metropolitan Opera baritone, and the team of Nora Kovach and Istvan Rabovsky and their dance company.

The cost of membership is $7 for adults and $3.50 for students, covering the full cost to members for the privilege of attending the entire concert series.

Only members of the association will be admitted to the concerts, with no sale of tickets at the door for any one concert.

Persons who wish to become members may contact campaign headquarters or Phil Bancroft, G. N. Blinoff or Florence Dennis.

The entire venture is strictly non-profit, devoted solely to bringing fine artists to the Walnut Creek area, Bancroft added.

Youth Concerts Offer Camperships

The board of directors of the Central Contra Costa Youth Concerts announced the offering of two one-week camperships to the Pacific Music Camp in Stockton.

The activity will further their goal to generate enthusiasm and excellence in music to the youth in the area.

The camperships will include board, room and all instructions and recreation for one week at the Pacific Music Camp, University of the Pacific.

The following dates may be chosen by the winners: Band, June 21-27, June 28-July 4; orchestra, July 6-12, July 13-19. Students must furnish their own transportation to and from the Music Camp.

Eligible are music students of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades as of spring registration, 1961, who are members of their school orchestra or band, and have the recommendation of their supervising music teacher.

Mrs. Rowland Barrett, president of Youth Concerts, announced that auditions will begin at 10 a.m. May 13 in the all-purpose room of the Walnut Creek School, 2425 Walnut Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

Attendance will be limited to students participating and their accompanist. Contestant must arrange his own accompanist. Five minutes (or less) on stage will be allowed each student.

This time will include introduction, tuning of instrument and playing of selection, not less than three minutes in length.

While memory work is not required, the judges will consider it important. Participants will be judged on tone quality, general musicianship, notation, rhythmic accuracy as well as general stage presence.

Judges will be out-of-district musicians.

Student applications will be sent through local music teachers during this week and are to be filled out and returned to Youth Concerts, Post Office Box 83, Walnut Creek, by May 3.

Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Charles Price.

Bancrofts Host Tea for Local Concert Assoc.

Phil Bancroft, Jr., president of the Acalanes Community Concert Association, and his wife, hosted a tea April 16 at their home on Bancroft Road. Their guests included area captains and board members of the association.

April 24 through April 29 has been proclaimed Community Concert Week. Memberships went on sale Monday, at which time the kick-off dinner was held at Kellogg's Restaurant in Walnut Creek at 7 p.m. The workers were guests of the association for dinner and were entertained by Mrs. Enid Jones, soprano, of Concord.

Guests enjoying the afternoon tea and gardens of the Bancrofts included Mr. and Mrs. Rags Montin, Mrs. Isabelle Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. George Hartwig, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Weede, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mutnick, Mrs. Alex Barr, Mr. Henry Greenfield, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dennis, Mrs. R. E. Eberle, Mrs. Peg Winters, Mrs. T. C. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Blinoff, Mrs. Walter Gray, Mr. Harold MacDonald, Mr. Russ Rokhar, Columbia Artists repre-

MacDougall Ends Training

Marine Pvt. Dave W. MacDougall, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. MacDougall of 2360 Geraldine Drive, Pleasant Hill, completed a four-week individual combat training course recently at the Regimental Training Unit, First Force Service Regiment, Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton.

The instruction is given annually to each marine below the rank of staff sergeant to maintain his proficiency in latest infantry tactics, scouting and patrolling, first-aid, map-reading, mine warfare and defensive positions.

representative of New York.

ANYONE interested in joining the Acalanes Community Concert Association may secure a membership by calling Bancroft at YE 4-2241, Mrs. Gray at YE 4-2537 or Mrs. Blinoff at MU 5-8348.

Two outstanding attractions have been announced for this coming season. Robert Merrill, the Metropolitan Opera baritone, and the team of Nora Kovach and Istvan Rabovsky and their dance company.

The balance of the program will be announced at the close of the membership campaign.

Improvement Group To Elect Directors

Three directors for the Sherman Acres Improvement Association will be elected tonight.

The new directors are needed to replace Bob Wynn, Marge Bruhn and Doll Elliott, whose terms have ended.

Tony Russo, Orville Newman and Pat Urhausen are the holders.

Summer Tour Is Open to All

H. Clark Fails, Diablo Valley College language instructor, who several weeks ago announced plans for a 44-day summer trip to Mexico City, said today that the tour is open not only to junior college students, but to teachers and the general public as well.

The "Mexican Adventure" trip, running from June 24 to August 6, is a package deal costing $698. This cost will cover all expenses at Mexico City College, round-trip air travel from San Francisco, tuition, room and board, local transportation and five weekend tours, the latter including three days of boating and water skiing at Acapulco.

For those attending Mexico City College the trip is worth six semester hours of transferable college credit.

Unification Master Plan Discussed Sat.

Members of the Contra Costa County Committee on School District Organization will join those from six other Bay Area counties at a meeting tomorrow in Burlingame to discuss the master plan for unification required of each county by 1973.

Dr. Jack V. Shahbazian of San Ramon Valley, chairman of the Contra Costa County committee, reports the meeting will be held from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the California Teachers Association Building. It will consist largely of group discussions. Dr. Fred W. Bewley, school unification advisor of Los Angeles County School Department, will be the chief consultant.

County committees are required by state law to prepare a master plan of unified school districts for their county by the deadline, defaulting which the State Department of Education is to prepare one.

The Men's Club of the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center will present the Broadway musical "Gypsy" May 6 at 8:15, at the Center building, 3800 Mt. Diablo Boulevard in Lafayette.

The show will be presented by the Professional Drama Group and Repertory Players of Temple Emanuel, in San Jose. This group is composed of ex-Broadway show people, many of whom had parts in the original Broadway show.

Donation of $3 per couple will be used to further youth activities of the center and, in particular, will be used to send the outstanding Sunday school student to camp this summer.

Refreshments will be served after the performance.

For reservations contact the center office, AT 3-8575, or tickets may be obtained at the door.
